

Miss Nina Kirk, near Hiram, is critically ill.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

Mr. David Winegardner of Dublin Mills, brought us a new subscriber when he came to town last Tuesday.

This state leads all others in the number of pensioners on the government rolls, a total of 100,700 pensioners being residents of this state.

Mr. Abram Runyan, of this place, spent a few hours Tuesday with his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Dawney, at Hustontown.

Dr. Frank Emmert the Eye and Ear Specialist of Chambersburg, will be at Dr. Mosser's office tomorrow. Eyes fitted with glasses and satisfaction guaranteed.

Hon. and Mrs. S. P. Wishart, of Wells Taunery, were here attending the Sabbath convention. They left this morning for an overland trip to the Antietam battlefield.

The many friends of Mrs. M. E. Dawney, of Hustontown, who has been ill since the Reunion, is now convalescing, and we hope she may soon be entirely well.

Every sportsman should see the new catalogue of The Northwestern School of Taxidermy. They teach the mounting of all kinds of Birds by mail. See their ad in another column.

Reports from all sections claim the oyster crop for the coming season will be far in excess of any ever known in America. The bivalves are said to be healthy and growing large and fat.

WANTED.—A man to canvass Fulton county for a reliable house. Permanent position to a hustler. Party who can furnish team preferred.

Address Box 39,
Mercersburg, Pa.

The house and barn on the farm belonging to H. E. Wilson, about four miles from Three Springs, were entirely destroyed by fire. Twenty-one loads of hay were stored in the barn. We are told there is no insurance.

New York capitalists will erect a large modern hotel at Harrisburg in the near future. It is to take the place of the Commonwealth Hotel, which will be torn down in a short time. It will be much larger and finer than the Commonwealth.

Dr. J. J. Palmer will be at Hustontown next Saturday, September 17th from 9 o'clock, a. m., until 4 p. m. Dr. Palmer is a successful specialist in the treatment of all diseases of the eye, and will fit glasses and guarantee satisfaction. Give him a trial!

Mr. J. Wesley Johnston, wife and daughter, of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting Mr. Johnston's sister, Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner at Wells Taunery. The Johnston family were former residents of Wells Valley but have been in the West eighteen years.

Hon. John W. Smith, an ex-member of the legislature, from Bedford county, spent Monday night at the Washington House. Mr. Smith and Landlord Woodjet were comrades in the 110th Pennsylvania Infantry and soldiered together in the early sixties.

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for chronic throat troubles and will positively cure bronchitis, hoarseness and all bronchial diseases. Refuse substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

A union meeting of the young people's societies of this place will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in consequence of which there will not be preaching services in any of the churches in town that evening.

Ex-Associate Judge John Nelson of Bedford county, died at his home at Cessna on the 5th inst., in his 84th year. He served with distinction in the Civil War and received a wound in the right leg which necessitated the amputation of that member and compelled his discharge.

One day, as Mrs. Hinkle, of Cumberland county, was about her work in the kitchen, a large rattlesnake came crawling into the kitchen and disappeared behind the wood box. She sent for help and it was not long until John E. Hart had laid the snake out. It was over three feet long and had 8 rattles.

It is hard for people to accept the fact that newspapers do not print unsigned letters. Some good friend of a paper will sit down and write a really good news letter. The Editor reads it, sees that there is no name attached and regretfully drops it into the waste basket, for that is the rule of all well conducted newspaper offices.

Last Saturday morning Miss Annie M. Carbaugh lost her purse between her home in Thompson township and Dick Wilson's below Big Cove Lannery. The purse which was a plush one, contained $8.74 in money and some other articles. The finder will do Miss Carbaugh a great favor by returning it to her, and she will be glad to pay a suitable reward. Her post-office address is Plum Run, Pa.

Jacob Fendrick, well known as the proprietor of the Mansion House at Mercersburg, died on Wednesday of last week, after an illness of four days. He was aged 41 years. He was a printer and a telegraph operator; but since the death of his father, the late Philip Fendrick, he had devoted his entire time to the hotel business. His wife who is a daughter of George Kettle, formerly of this county, survives him.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Aaron Steele, who has located in McConnellsburg, and has rented the shop opposite the Court House, formerly conducted by Mr. Heikes. Mr. Steele is a skilled mechanic and is prepared promptly to make any kind of repairs to buggies and carriages. If your buggy needs a new top, needs to be repainted, needs new tires, wheels, rims, shafts or anything else, take it to Mr. Steele. He's all right!

A POWER FOR GOOD.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold at Trout's drug store.

ALBERT STONER.

Clear Ridge 18, Hustontown 10.

Clear Ridge, Sept. 13.—Last Saturday our boys went out and crossed bats with the Hustontown boys and found every one of them perfect gentlemen. They say Umpire Dawney gave them a fair and square deal. There was heavy batting done throughout the game. Hoover was hit hard—never fanning a man—while Shore, of the Ridge team, fanned 12 men. The boys will play again Sept. 17th on Clear Ridge grounds, and they will be satisfied if the Hustontown boys bring Dawney along to umpire.

From 148 to 98 Pounds.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold at Trout's drug store.
