R. S. Seeds, who will lecture in the Court House in this place on Friday evening of next week, was appointed by Governor Pennypacker, one of the delegates from Pennsylvania to the Farmer's National Congress which is in session at St. Louis this week.

Last week our bustling farmer, Mr. Amos Seville, just west of town, with eight hands cutting and one tying shocks, making nine in all, cut 31 acres of corn in 28 hours. They did not cut it with a grain cradle either, but with the old fashioned corn-cutters, and cut it all one way, on account of the corn leaning. It will average, at least, 40 barrels to the acre.

Local Institute.

A local institute was held at Back Run school house, last Friday evening.

Mr. J. J. Conrad was elected president. The teacher, Miss Carrie Humbert, had an excellent program prepared.

The institute was made more interesting by the patrons, as well as the teachers, taking part in the discussion.

Subjects for discussion were—Use of the Text Book; Influence of Community upon the School. Vice Versa; and How to Secure Self Government in the School.

The committee decided to hold the next institute at Laurel Ridge, October 7th.

Teachers present were G. B. Mellott, Maye Mellott, Virgie Truax, Maude Rinedollar, Rebecca Kotz, Olive Grissinger, Carrie Humbert and Hattie Kendall.

RUSSELL NELSON, Secretary.

The first local institute of Dublin township was held at Ft. Littleton school Friday evening, September 23. The meeting was called to order by the teacher Levi Morton, and E. E. Kell was appointed chairman.

The following subjects were taken up. 1. Little things and their importance in school. 2. Influence of community upon the school; vice versa. 3. Duties of pupils, patrons, directors and teacher.

There were eleven teachers present. We, also, had the pleasure of having with us Prof. B. C. Lamberson of Hustontown, and Ex-Supt. Potts of Bedford county. They proved to be of valuable aid in the interest of education and we would be glad to have them come again.

The program was interspersed with music rendered in such a manner as to reflect much credit on both pupils and teacher.

The second local institute will be at Glunt's school Friday evening, October 7th. Teachers, patrons, and all friends of education are cordially invited to attend.

WORKING OVERTIME.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, sick headache and all stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at Trout's Drug Store.

The Capcon Power Company is erecting poles from Berkeley Springs to Hancock on which to carry electric power. This company will bring the power and light into the town and put in a reduction plant before asking the people or town to invest a cent in the enterprise. There are several electricians here who expect to get busy before long. Think of Hancock lighted by electricity. Three miles of poles have already been set—this light is now only 3 miles off. Let it shine.—Hancock Star.

Mrs. G. W. Heinbaugh has returned home from Altoona and Galitzin where she was visiting her husband, who has had charge of carpenter work there all summer. She also visited the family of Harmon Schmidt, Mr. Heinbaugh's cousin, and of Mrs. John Schmidt, his aunt. In returning, she stayed a few days with her father, Mr. C. Buterbaugh, who has been confined to his house since last April on account of paralysis. Mr. Heinbaugh expects to spend the rest of the winter on the Allegheny mountains where the air and water are fresh. It is very dry up on the Alleghanes, but not very warm.

A POWER FOR GOOD.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot, of Albany, Ga., says: "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel, blue mass or any other pill I ever took and at the same time the effect was pleasant. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold at Trout's drug store.

J. K. Johnston is selling the best Single Barrel Shot Guns, H. & R. at $3.35 and a good Double Barrel Shot Gun at $7.50.
