CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Read the new Millinery advertisement of A. J. Irwin & Co.

Read Maye Johnston's ad in another column.

100 new suits of clothes received this week at Johnston's.

No danger of consumption if you use Foley's Honey and Tar to cure that stubborn cough. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Heavy blankets at J. K. Johnston's from 50 cents to $5 a pair.

Miss Jennie Hanks, of Emma-ville, is visiting Misses Mary and Nettie Stoutteagle in town this week.

Everybody should see the new line of $1.25 shoes at Johnston's.

Lieut. James Connelly showed us a double peach seed yesterday morning that grew at his home. There are two perfect seeds joined solidly together.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia. Take no substitutes. Sold at Trout's drug store.

LOST.—Last Friday afternoon somewhere on Water street a gold shirt waist pin with the initials "M. J." The finder will please return it to this office.

Wanted at Paul Wagner's tannery, McConnellsburg, tallow, beefhides, horsehides, calskins, and sheepskins, for which the highest market price in cash will be paid.

Mr. John V. Glunt was in town early Monday morning arranging for the advertising of his sale. Mr. Glunt has sold his farm and intends to turn the plow handles over to some one else.

William H. Woodal of Ayr township, broke the record the other day by sowing sixteen acres of wheat in a day and a half. He would like to know who can beat that with one person following the drill.

Uncle Jake Miller, of Burnt Cabins, was among the court visitors on Monday. While Mr. Miller thinks it would be a sin for any Democrat not to take the "Fulton Democrat," he advanced his subscription a year ahead to the "News."

Mr. Thomas J. Wiener, has just returned from the eastern cities with an unusually large and well selected stock of fall and winter merchandise. Mr. Wiener is an up-to-date merchant, and it will be to the advantage of those wanting anything in his line to give him a call.

Don't forget the lecture in the Court House Friday evening. If your "livers" are out of order, or if you feel that everything is going to the "bow wows" just gather yourself up and go to the lecture and laugh all the malaria out of your system. Yes, "Laugh, and the world laughs with you; weep, and you weep alone." Doors open at 7:30; lecture begins at 8. Admission 25 cents. Tickets may be had at Trout's drug store.

A very pleasant social event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fisher in Bethel township last Thursday evening, at which time about three dozen of their friends assembled to celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of their son Archie's birthday. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the refreshments served were in keeping with the well known hospitality of the Fisher home.

John Spriggs, of Magnolia, W. Va., while unloading pigs from a wagon had an exciting experience. The team frightened and ran off throwing him under the wheels, breaking his leg midway between ankle and knee. Dr. Stigers, the B. & O. surgeon, was summoned and with the assistance of Dr. Kirk, of Paw Paw, removed a section of the bone some 2 1/2 inches long and a few days later wired the bones together. Operations of this kind get 2 column writeups in the big city papers and speak volumes for the skill of a native of Hancock, who has never lost a single patient from the use of the scalpel.—Hancock Star.

The Road Plow Case.
The Ayr township Road Plow case that has been prominently before the people of this county for several years was again tried in our court yesterday. A manufacturing company sold to the supervisors of the township a road plow, took their note, sold it to Miss Florence Hanks, and when it became due the township refused to pay it and suit was brought, and the case was tried in this court in October 1899, the township winning the suit. It was carried up to the superior court, who ordered it back for a new trial. It was tried again at October term 1902 and the township won again. Again it was taken up to the superior court, and the lower court reversed.—Yesterday, for the third time, it was tried here, and for the third time the township won. The probability is that it will again go up to the higher court. The note was $250 in the first place; now it amounts to $427.50.

Political Meetings.
Fire has been kindled under the political pots in this county. On Monday evening in the Court House, the Democrats held a big mass meeting, and this was followed on Tuesday evening by one held by the Republicans. Both were well attended, and the discussion, in both cases were tempered with fairness. The mass of the voters of to-day in this county are reading, thinking men and anything in the form of abuse or mud-slinging would recoil on the heads of those who would thus engage themselves.

Gillis—Grissinger.
At the Reformed parsonage, last Wednesday evening by Rev. C. M. Smith, Daniel Alexander Gillis, of this place, and Miss Alice Grissinger of Tod township, were united in marriage. The young people have the best wishes of their numerous friends.

A Dozen Times a Night.
Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold at Trout's drug store.

EMMAVILLE.
John A. Garland, of Whips Cove; was visiting friends in Brush Creek last Sunday. Jacob Garlick and wife, of this place, made a flying trip to Hancock last Saturday. William McDaniel, of Everett, was the guest of his lady friend, Miss Ida Hixson, recently. Frank Spade and wife were guests of her parents, M. E. H. Bard and wife, of Pleasant Ridge, last Saturday and Sunday. Anthony Spade purchased two fine cows Monday of last week.

Danger in Fall Colds.
Fall colds are liable to hang on all winter leaving the seeds of pneumonia, bronchitis or consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures quickly and prevents serious results. It is old and reliable, tried and tested, safe and sure. Contains no opiates and will not constipate. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Carbaugh.
Norris, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Carbaugh, near Knobsville, died last Friday, aged 1 year, 11 months, and 1 day.—Funeral services conducted Sunday morning by Rev. Adams of the M. E. church, and interment made in the Union cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wible of this place, entertained very delightfully nearly half a hundred of their friends last Wednesday evening.

To The School Teacher of Fulton County

who will mail to us before Nov. 15th next, the best essay on our famous "Conococheague" Watch, we will present to her a beautiful Diamond and Opal Ring. Should the essay be written by a male teacher, then the prize will be a Conococheague watch. The value of either article is $12.00. The watch and ring are now on view at Trout's Drug Store in McConnellsburg. The essay need not be lengthy, ten to fifteen lines preferred. These watches were named after Franklin county's largest creek. Further information will be mailed upon application. The prize will be awarded to the winner by the editor of THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS.
