NEW GRENADA.

Mrs. Catharine Tice, of Wells Valley, is visiting friends in Ohio. Mrs. Catharine Duvall, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Galbreath, of South Fork, for a couple of months, arrived home on Saturday, accompanied by her daughter. Mrs. Duvall looks hale and hearty.

Loy McClain and Cleve and William Crider are now employed at Woodvale mines.

It is reported that some petty thieving is going on in and near New Grenada. Some one relieved Geo. Black of eleven chickens in one night, and husked 4 shocks of John Thomas's corn. Wouldn't have been so bad had it been only husked; but the party who did the husking took all for his share. Many other chickens are disappearing in the night time. It will not cease until some one gets filled with shot.

Henry E. Rowe, of Knobsville, moved to his home in Wells near the Camp Ground, last week. If Tod lost a good Democrat, Wells found one.

Mrs. N. G. Cunningham is on the sick list and was almost overcome on Friday by weakness of the heart. She is some better at this writing.

Dr. Robt. M. Hunter drove over to our town from Saxton last Friday.

Adam Long and wife and Mrs. Sillers, of Saltillio, visited Harry Sharpe's on Wednesday.

James M. Keith found a new addition to their family—a new girl baby.

Among the many friends summoned here on account of the death of Samuel Houpp, we noticed in particular a certain one, Jacob Houpp, who was at one time an adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Houpp. He drifted away in his teens—married and settled in Pittsburg, Pa. He used to be a school mate of the writer, and a better hearted mate never lived than he; and by all appearances, he is just as good a man. We notice he is minus his left arm. He is car-receiver at 42nd st., Pittsburg.

John Houck, and Charlie Seville, teacher of No. 4, visited the Seville home in McConnellsburg last Saturday and Sunday.

Quite a real estate deal took place during the past week. Alice McClain, postmistress of New Grenada, and Richard Alloway, who owned the Geo. H. McCoy property, concluded to swap, and a deal was made, and on Saturday began moving to and fro, and will finish on Thursday. The post-office will be in the McCoy property and Richard and family can rock on the porch of the Dave K. McClain homestead. We trust both parties are well suited in the deal.

The post-office at Hubelsville was entered through a window one night recently and pilfered. Nothing much was stolen.

One of Many. H. A. Tisdale, of Summertown, S. C., suffered for twenty years with the piles. Specialists were employed and many remedies used but relief and permanent good was found only in the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. This is only one of the many cures that have been effected by this wonderful remedy. In buying Witch Hazel Salve it is only necessary to see that you get the genuine DeWitt's, made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. in Chicago, and a cure is certain. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures all kinds of piles, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, tetter, ringworm, skin diseases, etc. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Watson Plessinger was circulating among friends in the Valley Saturday night and Sunday.

Harry Barton and family of Mench, visited his father, Mason Barton Sunday.

Morgan Barton, Jr., lost a valuable horse last week by stepping on a sharp lath and snagging an artery over the heart. It bled to death in a few minutes.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store. Trial bottle free.

WHICH LADY WAS HIS WIFE.

A Little Turkish Legend Wherein Lies A Moral For Many Wives.

A certain Turk, according to a legend, was once married to a veiled lady in white in the presence of the sultan. As soon as the ceremony was concluded the bride mysteriously disappeared. The groom was led into an adjoining room where stood twelve ladies all dressed in white, but without veils. "Choose from the twelve," exclaimed the sovereign, "her that is your bride."

As the man had never seen her face, the command bewildered him. "If you make a mistake," added his majesty, "your life shall pay the forfeit." The poor man walked up and down the row of beauties, but he had nothing whatever to aid his choice. "You have only a minute left," cried the sultan in anger, "choose at once."

Ten of the ladies, he noticed, gavel him nothing else than a stony glare. One of them frowned, the other smiled. "The frowning one," he thought, "is my bride, for she expresses her displeasure and impatience at my ignorance. "No," he said to himself, "it must be the smiling one, for she desires to invite me to her."

After debating the subject in his mind until his time was up he boldly made a selection from the two. He was successful. He had regained his bride. Which was she, the one who frowned or the one who smiled?

A Dozen Times a Night.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold at Trout's drug store.

THE New York World

THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION. Read wherever the English Language is Spoken.

The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established itself in public favor, and it is now recognized as the strongest publication of its kind in the United States. Advertisers and publishers seeking clubbing combinations—and they know best—universally testify to it. It is widely circulated in every State and Territory of the Union, and even in remote South Africa and on the gold fields in the deserts of Australia. These are the things that tell. This year we have the Presidential campaign, in which all Americans are deeply interested. Already the issues are being discussed and the two great parties are preparing for the first moves. You will not want to miss any details, and if you subscribe now your year's subscription will cover the campaign from beginning to end.

The Thrice-a-Week World is absolutely fair in political news. Partisan bias is never allowed to effect its news columns, and Democrat and Republican alike can obtain in its pages truthful accounts of all the great political contests.

In addition to all the news, the Thrice-a-Week World furnishes the best serial fiction, elaborate market reports and other features of interest.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Fulton County News together one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.
