A Little of Everything. South Dakota has such a glorious wheat crop that she can afford to slack up a little in the divorce business.

A giddy mail-carrier of the youthful age of eighty has married a New York girl. Sort of a swapping mail for female.

"Papa, what makes a man give a ring to a woman when they are engaged?"

"The woman." The Czar was all in readiness for a hunting trip when Kurapatkin got wind of it and wired him all his ammunition would be needed.

"Now, Elsie," said the teacher, "can you tell me what a panther is?"

"Yeth, ma'am," lisped Elsie, "He is a man that maketh panths." Hewitt—"Do you think long hair makes a man look intellectual?"

Jewett—"Not when his wife finds it on his coat; it makes him look foolish."

Muggins—"I understand your son has finished his college course. Did he graduate with honors?"

Buggins—"Honors! Gee, you ought to see his batting average!"

"I came to ask you for your daughter." "But she's the only one I have."

"Well, I don't want but one. I hope you don't take me for a bigamist."

Along the street she passed so neat, So pretty, charming and so sweet, A mere slip of a girl, To see this girl was quite a treat, But a banana peel disturbed her feet— 'Twas a mere slip of a girl.

Tommy—Mamma, my feet hurt in these new shoes. Mamma—My dear, you have them on the wrong feet!

Tommy—But, mamma, I have no other feet. Hix—I suppose you were touched when your wife gave you that hundred dollar watch on your birthday.

Dix—I should say I was touched. How do you think she got that hundred dollars. Grayce—Maud tells me that Ferdy kissed her hand last night. Now, what do you think of that?

Eyth—Well, I suppose the poor man had to do something and couldn't go her face. He—You say you like a manly man. What is your idea of a manly man?

She—Well, for instance, one who doesn't stay and stay and stay just because he knows the girl isn't strong enough to throw him out.

According to scripture the prophet Elijah was taken up into Heaven soul and body. Elijah No. 2 (Dowie) finds the heavenly chariot rather tardy in arriving, so to be sure of "landing" he is building an air-ship.

"Where is Mr. Soke, James?" asked the caller of that genial gentleman's servant. "In his room, sir."

"Getting drunk, I suppose." "No, sir. I'm surprised at you, sir, saying such a thing. He is getting sober."

A Startling Test. To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Methoopy, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for a weak stomach and liver troubles so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c at Trout's drug store.

S. of A., Hustontown, at a recent practice of the 14th regiment at Pittsburg, won a gold medal valued at $45.00 for the best shooting in field practice. Sam is a member of Company E. 14th regiment and wears proud of his success.

Lieutenant of police John Dawney, patrolman Montague Dawney and wife and Scott H. Dawney left for their respective homes in Chicago last Monday.

Mrs. Frank Deshong, of Fannettsburg, was visiting friends in this place Saturday and Sunday.

A Heavy Load.

To lift that load of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach, and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

S. P. Storrs, a druggist at 297 Main street, New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and consequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. A Sure Thing.

It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is a sure cure for all lung and throat troubles. Thousands can testify to that. Mrs. C. B. VanMetre, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., says "I had a severe case of bronchitis and for a year tried every thing I heard of, but got no relief. One bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery then cured me absolutely." It's infallible for croup, whooping cough, croup, pneumonia and consumption. Try it. It's guaranteed at Trout's drug store. Trial bottles free. Reg. sizes 50c, $1.00.

WHY YOU SHOULD VISIT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The principal reason why a visit should be made to this greatest of Expositions is on account of its educational value. A visit to the World's Fair is in itself a trip around the world, for fifty cents, the price of admission. The president of one of our greatest universities has said "To the bright student the Exposition is worth a thousand college lectures." The opportunity of a life-time is afforded in which to acquire, by a few days' sojourn at the Fair, an education which could not otherwise be received. The World's Fair Grounds' cover over 1200 acres, being more than twice as large as those of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

Only a few weeks remain in which to take advantage of this great opportunity. Every day from now until the close of the Fair is a "special" day. The WABASH is selling daily excursion tickets to the Fair at greatly reduced rates: $12.00 St. Louis and return, on sale daily, except Fridays and Saturdays. Tickets good in Palace Reclining Chair Cars $15.00, St. Louis and return. Tickets on sale daily, and good in either Palace Reclining Chair Cars or Pullman Sleepers. The WABASH operates through trains from Pittsburgh to the World's Fair Main Entrance, all trains leaving the magnificent new passenger station, Corner of Liberty Avenue and Ferry Street, at 2:00 P. M. and 8:30 P. M. daily, City Time.

Detailed information regarding rates and train service, to St. Louis, as well as to many Homesteaders' points in the west, northwest and southwest, cheerfully furnished at: Wabash City Ticket Office, 320 Fifth Avenue, Depot Ticket Office, Wabash Station.

The Christmas Delinquent. The December Delinquent, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness, will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive, illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, and a chapter in the Composers' Series, relating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima, is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life from an unclaimed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of F. Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting, and Elmore E. Holt Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Magruder, L. Frank Baum, and Grace McGowan Cook hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are replete with the Christmas feast. In addition, there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS. Some of the most anxious hours of a mother's life are those when the little ones of the household have the croup. There is no other medicine so effective in this terrible malady as Foley's Honey and Tar. It is a household favorite for throat and lung troubles, and as it contains no opiates or other poisons, it can be safely given. Sold at Trout's drug store.

HUSTONTOWN. George Deshong and wife, who have been sick, are convalescing. Miss Chloe Chesnut is ill. George Tenley and wife were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sipes last Saturday. Miss Mable Summers is visiting friends in this neighborhood.
