Samuel D. Fluck, a Bedford county Republican, sent a coon to President Roosevelt, and in a few days after shipment, Mr. Fluck, received from the executive mansion an acknowledgment of the arrival of the animal expressing thanks for his remembrance, and stated that every effort would be made to keep it to celebrate a victory again in 1908.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Black, East Walnut street, was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party Monday evening, Nov. 7, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Black, where sixteen of their young lady and gentlemen friends showered congratulations on them and spent the evening in social intercourse and games. Harvey and Mrs. Black will be at home in Ebensburg in the near future.

Last Thursday morning a freight running east picked up a big buck deer, weighing 230 pounds, just west of Huntington. The animal, it is supposed, came down off the ridge to get water and was struck by a west bound passenger train. The deer was noticed by a brakeman who had the train stopped and the boys placed it on a car and took it to Harrisburg.

Here is common sense advice given by a Missouri editor to the girls of his town: "Don't go to the postoffice and shove about in a miscellaneous crowd. Don't go to church and take a back seat with your escort, then whisper and giggle throughout the sermon. Don't be loud and boisterous and slangy. Stand on your dignity and don't form acquaintances quickly. Don't carry your heart on your sleeve and don't throw yourself into the arms of every good looking drummer or every well dressed stranger who comes to town."

He Could Hardly Get Up.
P. H. Duffy, of Ashley, Ill., writes, "This is to certify that I have taken two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure and it has helped me more than any other medicine. I tried many advertised remedies, but none of them gave me any relief. My druggist recommended Foley's Kidney Cure and it has cured me. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down." Sold at Trout's drug store.

It Depends.
A few years ago when they were operating cable cars up and down a steep hill in one of the New England cities, a middle aged lady, who had never seen them before, entered a car one day that contained only two other people, seating herself as near the conductor as possible, and when he had collected her fare she spoke to him and said:

"Is this car perfectly safe?"
"I hope so, madam," replied the conductor.
"Have you ever had accidents on this awful steep hill?"
"Well," replied the conductor, "there have only been a few small accidents; nothing serious."
"Where would I go," she then inquired, "if this car should get away and go sliding down this steep hill?"
"Well, madam, said the conductor, "it would all depend on how you have lived your past life."—Public Ledger.

Mothers Praise It.
Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. A. L. Spafford, Postmaster, of Chester, Mich., says: Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly. One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation and removes every cause of a cough and strain on lungs. Sold at Trout's drug store.

The local institute announced for Douglas' school house November 18, has been postponed indefinitely.
