An acquaintance met Horace Greely one day and said : "Mr. Greely I've stopped your paper,' "Have you ?" said Horace. 'Well that's too bad," and the old white hat went its way. The next morning Greely met his subscriber ag in, and said : "I thought you had stopped the Tribune ?" "So I did." "Then there must be some mi-take," sud Horace, for I just came from the office and the presses were running, the clerks were as busy as ever, the compositors were hard at work and the business was going the same as yesterday and the day before." "Oh !" ejaculated the subscriber, "I didn't mean that I had stopped the paper. I stopped only my copy of it because I didn't like your editorials."

"Pshaw?" retorted Greely, "It wasn't worth taking up my time totel such a trifle as that. My dear sir, if you expect to control the utterances of the 'Tribune' by t to purchase of one copy a day, or if you thing to find any newspaper worth reading that will never c.press convictions at right an-

Grains of Gold.

What makes life dreary is want of motive. To find fault is easy; to do better may be difficult. Gayety is often the reckless ripple over dispair.

From the errors of others wise man corrects his own.

Kundness is the golden chain by which society is bound. Self-possession is another name for self-forgetfulness.

All that is human must retrograde if it does not advance.

I guorance is less removed from the truth than prejudice.

Man is nearsighted on the side where he thinks it would pay to sin

God gives every bird its food, but he does not throw it into the nest.

Obedience is not truly performa d by the body if the heart is dissatisfied.

Whether happiness may come or not, one should try and prepare to do without it.
