Japanese Mowed Bown By the Hundreds at Port Arthur.

WILL NOW STARVE THE RUSSIANS.

First Complete Story of the Greatest Battle in Front of Port Arthur Since the Fortress Was Invested-Futile Efforts to Envelop City From the East and West-Desperate Rushes Over the Bodies of the Dend.

A thrilling story of the latest general ault upon Port Arthur by General ogi's army is told by a correspondent th the army in a dispatch dated Noember 28 and received by eable direct rom Tientsin, the dispatch having probably been held at headquarters for cenorship. The correspondent says that while one force attacked the forts at granted, Rihlung and Kekwan Mountains, with a view to enveloping the city from the east, another force tried a similar movement from the west. The attempt failed after the most furious fighting since Port Arthur was invested. In the terrific attack the Japanese were moved down by hundreds.

Captain Clado, of Admiral Rojestensky's squadron, who has been opposing the admirality by agitating in favor of forcing the Dardanelles and sending the Black Sea fleet to reinforce the Russian Second Pacific squadron in St. Petersburg, has been arrested in St. Petersburg. It appears that Viceroy Alexieff instigated Clado's agitation and that he will be rebuked by being rele-

CRUISER SAIVEN SINKS.

The Japanese Navy is Deprived of Another Vessel.

Tokio (By Cable).-The Navy Department announces that the Saiyen, commanding the detached squadron, while co-operating with the army in bombarding Port Arthur November, 30, struck a Russian mine and was seen to be enveloped in smoke. The gunboat Akagi, which was also engaged in shell-ing Port Arthur, immediately ceased fir-ing and went to the rescue of the Saiyen. Finding that the latter was making water rapidly, the Akagi anchord near the sinking ship and, co-operating with the other Japanese ships' launches, succeeded in rescuing 15 officers and 175 men, but Captain Tajima and 38 others went down with the ship.

The Saiyen, while in command of the detached squadron, and at the same time engaged in blockading Port Arthur, was often exposed to dangers and frequently rendered distinguished services.

The announcement of the Navy De-parment concludes as follows:
"It is highly regrettable that such a ship should have mer with so great a misfortune."

It is reported here that since the commencement of the bombardment of the Russian fleet in Port Arthur harbor, the Japanese military observers on 203-Meter Hill have not seen anything of the Russian fleet of torpedo-boat destroyers, and it is presumed it has taken shelter behind Laoti Mountain.

The Japanese fleet lying off the en-trance to the harbor is constantly on the alert in anticipation of an attempt being made by any of the Russian war-ships to escape and seek refuge in some

Justice of the Peace Bond caused the arrest of Edward Allen, of Woodmont, whose son, Luther, is now in iail at Norristown, accused of aiding in the escape of Frank Saylor, the negro who killed the Hendersons, near Bethayres. The elder Allen was also accused of aiding Saylor. Allen came to Norristown unaccompanied, and after Chief of Police W. H. Rodenbaugh, and District Attorney A. H. Hendricks had put him through the "sweating" process the two were convinced that there was not suffi-cient evidence to hold him, and he was permitted to go. Allen told the authorities that Saylor, who was a friend of his, came to his home on the Saturday after the murder, while his wife and two other women were alone. His wife was alarmed, and drove to Hatboro, where Allen was working, to tell him. He went home, lit a lantern, and found Saylor sitting on a wood pile in his cellar, with a revolver in his hand. Allen told Saylor he would have to leave the house. Saywould have to leave the house. Saylor departed, saying he was going to

A movement is on foot throughout the State to have a bill passed by the approaching Legislature providing for the publication in not less than two newspapers of each county of the laws passed from session to session. This movement is the outgrowth of the large number of prosecutions under the pure food and game and fish laws. It is contended that many persons are ignorant of the laws which are passed by reason of the fact that these laws are no published in the newspapers. New York, Ohio and other States have been printing the laws for many years
