

Howard Skipper and wife spent a day in town last week. Grover Peck, of Knobsville, spent a few days last week among his friends down in Belfast.

FOR SALE.—One good young cow—will be fresh in January.—Roy M. Sipes, Salvia, Pa.

Dont be imposed upon by taking substitutes offered for Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by all dealers.

G. Elmer Clouser, Esq., one of Ayr township's justices of the peace, spent a few hours in town last Thursday on business.

After an absence of four months in Buffalo, N. Y., Misses Marion and Jessie Sloan returned to their home in this place last Saturday.

Mr. H. W. Ewing and daughter, Mollie, are spending a week's holiday vacation among friends in Chambersburg and in Newville.

Mr. Daciel Landers and son, Charles, of Taylor township, took advantage of the good sleighing to make a trip to the County Seat one day last week.

Maurice Trout and Frank Irwin, students at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, are at their respective homes in this place enjoying the holiday season.

Mr. Oliver Plessinger and son Chester, near Needmore, spent a few hours in town last Wednesday, and, of course, came in and advanced their subscription to the "News."

Scott Rinedollar came down from Everett last Saturday that he might help eat a Christmas turkey at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Rinedollar of the Cove.

Mr. Hiram K. Hill, treasurer of the Belfast township school board was in town last Friday. Mr. Hill says Belfast has received its share of the State appropriation, but that the minimum salary law places a heavy burden of local taxation for school purposes.

Assessor W. H. Williams, secretary of the school board A. W. Duvall, Farmer John N. Hixson—all near Akersville, formed a trio of good fellows that took advantage of the snow to come to McConnellsburg last Thursday. Mr. Duvall complains of the burden of taxation placed upon his township by the minimum salary law for the payment of school teachers.

Mr. D. R. Strait and his brother, H. M. Strait, passed through this place last Friday on their return from a two-week tour through Franklin county where they had been closing business for the Dickeson Publishing Company, of Detroit, of which firm Mr. D. R. Strait is one of the important agents. After spending a few days at home, D. R. Strait will go to Detroit.

John Martz, of Dublin, dropped into our sanctum last Friday and had his name added to the already long list of subscribers to the "News." He recalled the fact that he was one of the boys in the Fort Littleton school when the Editor visited it as County Superintendent. John says that he will not soon forget the impressions that the teacher almost daily made upon him.

A TIMELY TOPIC. At this season of coughs and colds it is well to know that Foley's Honey and Tar is the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures quickly and prevents serious results from a cold. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Pleasant Ridge. C. M. Dixon and family, of Chambersburg, are visiting the former's wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Palmer, at Needmore.

Mr. Clyde Strait, Scott Hockensmith, Charlie Mellott, Ada Barton and Ettie Hockensmith spent Christmas with M. E. Barton in Brush Creek valley.

George Morton and Michael Mellott called on Morgan Deshong last Sunday.

James B. Mellott has commenced hauling limestone. Jim is a progressive farmer.

DRIVEN TO DESPERATION. Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns, cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. There is a supply of Dr. J. C. DeWitt's Anodyne Salve. Its the best on earth. 25c. at Trout's

New Grenada. Curtis McClain moved to Robertsdale on Monday. John Mills is spending his vacation at home and is afflicted with boils. He shot a wildcat during the past week.

The family of E. A. Alloway, who were visited with scarlet fever, have about all recovered.—The quarantine was lifted and Ed has resumed his work at the store at Robertsdale.

Watkin Watkin and son Walter have moved to the farm in Coles Valley that they had purchased from Curtis McClain.

Charles Grissinger, of the Philadelphia Dental College, is home for a couple weeks and is doing some dental work.

Harvey Bergstresser of Three Springs and Eddie and Hayes Bergstresser of Monessen, Pa., ate Christmas dinner with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bergstresser, at Waterfall, and visited friends at this place the same day.

Dr. R. B. Campbell took a few days off and visited in Mt. Union, Black Log, and other points in Huntingdon county.

The Bethel Sunday school, on account of scarlet fever in the community, dispensed with their entertainment and on Christmas treated the school to oranges and confections, and closed the school until the first Sunday in April, 1905.

W. S. Gracey of Taylor is one of those good old brothers who do not forget the minister, but as the holidays come near he divides his storehouse of produce. Last Wednesday he loaded up a bag of apples and left them in the parsonage at New Grenada. May the Lord bless the donor. When the preacher examined the donation he found a 5-pound sugar bag full—8 apples in all. Pretty well done, Billy. Call again.

A. D. Keith, our supervisor, received reliable information on Saturday that the State Highway Commissioner had concluded to build two miles of new road in Wells, beginning at the County line in the narrows below our village and going toward Enid. This, no doubt, will settle the road question that has been the topic of discussion for some time; and we trust that those who oppose the same may co-operate with the majority, and that it may prove a blessing in disguise.

A PLEASANT PILL. No pill is as pleasant and positive as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are so mild and effective that children, delicate ladies and weak people enjoy their cleansing effect, while strong people say they are the best liver pills sold. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Week of Prayer. Union Services will be held in the churches of town during the week of prayer, commencing in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, January 2. In the United Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. In the Lutheran church on Wednesday evening. For the other churches' announcements will be made later. Each pastor will arrange program for and conduct the service in his own church. The topics suggested by the Evangelical Alliance will be used as general topics. Services to commence at 7 p. m.

A GUARANTEED CURE FOR PILES. Itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles. Druggists refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure any case, no matter of how long standing, in 6 to 14 days.—First Application gives ease and rest. 50c. If your druggist hasn't it send 50c in stamps and it will be forwarded post-paid by Paris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo.

George E. Staley. George Emory Staley, of Buck Valley, aged 21 years, died at Cumberland, of pneumonia. He leaves a bride of three months, whom he left two weeks after his marriage to go to Cumberland to secure employment, in order to raise funds to start housekeeping. He worked for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and had saved almost enough, as he thought to arrange for going to housekeeping, when stricken with pneumonia. The remains were brought to Hancock on Friday for interment.—Hancock Star.

Neasbit returned home from a business trip to Unity and New York city.

Local Institute. There will be a local institute at Vallance school in Licking Creek township, Friday evening, December 30th. The following topics will be presented for discussion: 1. The Recitation; How conducted; Results to be Obtained. 2. Examinations; Why, When and How Held. 3. Tardiness; Its Effects; How Remedied? 4. All teachers, patrons and friends of education are invited to attend.—Oliver Sipes, teacher.

There will be an educational meeting at Battle Ridge school, Dublin township, Friday evening, December 30.

Topics for discussion: 1. Self-Renounce; Its Value; How Taught. 2. Where Do the Teacher's Duties to His Pupils End? 3. The Use and Abuse of Text Books. 4. Little Things, and Their Importance in School.

All teachers and friends of education are cordially invited. Roy Morton, teacher.

MOTHERS, BE CAREFUL. of the health of your children. Look out for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Stop them in time—One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy. Harmless and pleasant. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Holiday Good Will. The happy holidays are here with good will abounding. That of the good people of the Cove United Presbyterian congregation took form on the Friday evening before Christmas by gathering, en masse, in the pastor's home, attended with loaded vehicles. So unexpected was their arrival that they found the pastor in his inoperative suit that evening, though one member of the family seemed inexplicably urgent that he should hasten to don another suit because he was in danger of taking cold. But if he didn't take cold he did take a good many other things that did not require the doctor.

A very happy hour followed, occupied with merry good cheer, presentation and responsive addresses, and praise to the great Giver, with invocation. The pastor was made the recipient of a well filled envelope of greenbacks, and his wife of a beautiful couch. The stable and larder supplies were both re-enforced.

Another feature that deserves special mention was the presentation to the pastor by one of the young ladies of a beautiful dog of fine strain and possessed of the traits of character which the pastor very much admires.

These expressions of good will and sympathy are very highly appreciated, and these good people have the cordial thanks of the pastor and his family.

REPORT FROM THE REFORM SCHOOL. J. G. Gluck, Superintendent, Pruntytown, W. Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Mrs. Moses Hill spent several days last week visiting friends in this neighborhood, and was a caller at the News office in company with Mrs. A. M. Richards last Wednesday.
