CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Paul Wagner is paying 7 and 8 cents a pound for beef hides.

Mr. D. B. Nace, of Chambersburg, is spending a few days in McConnellsburg.

FOR SALE.—Quiet family bay horse. Good driver gentle and safe. Inquire at the News office.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by all dealers.

There will be preaching services at the Salvation Army church near Big Cove Tannery, Sunday, at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and at 7 o'clock.

There will be an oyster supper at the Salvation Army church near Big Cove Tannery on Friday and Saturday evening, January 13 and 14.

The many friends of G. H. Hausan, Engineer L. E. & W. R. R., at present living in Lima, Ohio, will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted."

Mr. Reuben R. Sipes, one of the school directors of Licking Creek township, spent Tuesday in town. Mr. Sipes says that they have the school tax up to the 13-mill limit, and yet will not have money enough to pay their teachers. There is something wrong with a school law that forces a debt upon a school district from year to year.

Our old friend John H. Winter, who moved to Kansas from Whips Cove many years ago, in sending another dollar to pay his subscription up to 1906, says: "I don't wish to do without the News. It is a little like a mirror; I can look back over times passed, former associations, and many friends younger than I, who have gone over to the other shore, while I am still lingering here at the age of 83. I cannot see to read much, but still love to hear from the State of my nativity."

Beat Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Trout's drug store; price 50c.

Wigfield.

William W. Wigfield, aged 18 years, 7 months and 27 days, died of Bright's disease at the residence of Moses Mellott, near Plum Run, on Sunday, January 8, 1905.

The deceased caught cold about two weeks ago while working in Whips Cove. This resulted in an attack of quinsy and as he became worse, Bright's disease developed which caused his death.

William was a bright industrious young man and was very popular with all that knew him.

The funeral was held yesterday at 10 o'clock. Interment at the Damascus church.

The deceased was a son of the late Wilson Wigfield, who resided until his death some years ago on Blackoak Ridge.

The deceased is survived by a brother in West Virginia and a sister in Thompson township.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort, viz; Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are a most wonderful remedy, affording sure relief and cure, for headache, dizziness and constipation. 25c at Trout's drug store.

ONLY A FEW HOURS APART.

Mrs. John Brooks Died Last Saturday Evening, and Her Brother, Wilson Gregory, on Monday Morning.

At her home in Hancock last Saturday evening, Rachel, wife of Mr. John Brooks, died after a brief illness, and on Monday morning her brother, Wilson Gregory, died at his home in Washington City. In the little cemetery on the old home farm in Bethel township, known as the Moses Gregory farm—and later as the Brooks farm, the remains of Mrs. Brooks was interred Monday, and Mr. Gregory will be buried there tomorrow. This is a sad break in another of the county's old families, Mrs. Annie Carl, and Mrs. W. P. Gordon, of Warfordsburg; Mrs. Harry Taylor, of Hancock, and William Gregory of Iowa, being all the members left of the family of their father, the late Moses Gregory.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. These pills change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain-fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold at Trout's drug store.

CHANGES WROUGHT BY TIME.

Franklin Paper a Novelty and Coal Used for Paving Streets.

When Benjamin Franklin first thought of starting a newspaper in Philadelphia many of his friends advised against it, because there was a newspaper published in Boston. Some of them doubted that the country would be able to support two newspapers.

When the first two tons of coal were brought into Philadelphia in 1803, the good people of that city, so the records state, tried to burn the stuff but at length, disgusted, they broke it up and made a walk out of it. Fourteen years later Col. George Shoemaker sold eight or ten wagon loads of it in the same city, but warrants were soon issued for his arrest for taking money under false pretenses.

Children Poisoned.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung trouble, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons. Sold by all dealers.

CITO.

Mrs. George Seiders and infant son, Orman, are on the sick list.

Daniel Garland and Amos Plesinger, of Sideling Hill, came up to Riley Garland's on Monday night of last week, each having a wagon, and expecting to return with a load of corn next day; but owing to the blizzard, they were storm-stayed for a day, and then on Wednesday wished the wheels were at home and that they had runners.

A WISE WITNESS.

He Knew Just Exactly What the Lawyer Wanted to Do.

The cross examiner had kept the witness on the stand for some time, and the witness naturally was getting weary.

"If you would only answer my questions properly," said the cross examiner, "we would have no trouble. If I could only get you to understand that all I want to know is what you know we?"

"It would take you a lifetime to acquire that," interrupted the witness.

"What I mean is that I merely want to learn what you know about this affair," the lawyer said, frowning. "I don't care anything about your abstract knowledge, but what you know about this case."

"Oh, that isn't what you want," said the witness in an offhand way. "I've been trying to give you that for some time, and?"

"The lawyer got in an objection, and the witness had to stop."

"If I don't want to know what you know about this particular case and nothing else," inquired the lawyer later, "what do you think I want to know?"

"That seemed so easy that the witness laughed as he said:

"It isn't what I know that you want to know. It's what you think I know that you're after, and you're trying to make me know it or prove me a liar."

Then it was that every one in the courtroom knew that he had been in the witness stand before.—New York Press.

Innkeeper's Soft Answer.

At a certain inn on the fashionable eastern shore of Massachusetts the proprietor is noted for his easy going disposition and his lip. It happened that the coffee was never just right, and the women guests, after a piazza talk, finally went to the proprietor and complained. He promised to have the matter looked into at once. A week passed with no noticeable improvement, so complaint was again made.

Said one of the women, "Really, Mr. S., the coffee was worse than ever this morning."

"Yes," chimed in another, "even worse than in Nice, where they boil chicory and call it coffee!"

"And I've just had to take chocolate, which I detest!" added the third matron.

Finally the proprietor turned, with his affable smile and lip, and remarked:

"Was it that bad, really? Well, I am then glad I took tea."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable," "The one magazine I feel I must take," "The world under a field-glass," "An education in public affairs and current literature,"—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read the Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, first and foremost.

Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."
