Married. EVERTS—AMICK. From a Gilman Newspaper.

There was a very pleasant gathering at the home of Barkley McDaniel and wife in Gilman, Iowa, Tuesday, Jan. 10, 1905.

Mrs. Everts has made her home with Mr. McDaniel and wife the past four years.

Mr. Everts is not altogether unknown to the people of Gilman, although for the past three years he has been in the U. S. Army.

The newly wedded couple will remain in the city until spring when they will move into the McDaniel homestead west of Gilman.

Children Poisoned. Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak.

Nervousness shows itself in different ways in children, and its development should be guarded against if possible.

Love and Patience. Nervousness shows itself in different ways in children, and its development should be guarded against if possible.

A SURPRISE PARTY. A pleasant surprise party may be given to your stomach and liver, by taking a medicine which will relieve their pain and discomfort.

CITIZEN.

Charley Stenger bought some lumber from Harvey Cooper and Jacob Mellott to make some sleds and employed J. S. S. Garland to haul it.

John Seville and George Souders are hauling bark for J. W. Mellott.

John Clevenger of Hustontown, came down to the Cove one day last week for a load of corn.

There was an interesting local institute at Springhouse Valley school house last Friday evening.

William Patterson is getting a well bored for his tenant, Ephraim Houck.

William Lynch was at Riley Garland's last Saturday night with his talking machine.

Jonas Lake, of Laidig, was down at Abram Fox's last Monday for a load of corn.

Jacob W. Mellott is happy over the arrival of a little daughter at his house.

Marv Carbaugh is employed in the family of Curtis Richards.

Mrs. John Carbaugh was at Webster Seville's last Sunday.

Daniel Clevenger, Jacob Mellott and William Kuhn were at John Carbaugh's last Sunday.

In Bed Four Weeks with La Grippe.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Roy Kemp, of Angioia, Ind. "I was in bed four weeks with la grippe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable for treatment, but I received no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar.

Local Institute.

The seventh local institute in Licking Creek township, was held at Shaue's school January 13th.

The program was opened by singing. The following topics were then discussed: 1. The advantage of the educated over the uneducated.

The teachers who were present all took part in the discussions. The program was interspersed by recitations and singing which was rendered in a way that gives much credit to the ability of the pupils and teacher.

Oliver Sipe, secretary.

The Grippe.

Everyone who has had the grippe, and very few have been free from that annoying ailment, will be interested in a statement made by an "observing man" to the New Orleans Times Democrat.

The questions discussed were: 1. How do you get your pupils interested? 2. What should govern directors in the selection of teachers? 3. What is the relation of practice and theory?

The school rendered several interesting songs and recitations.

The way the recitations were rendered indicated the teacher's ability and the pupils courage to entertain an institute.

Howard Mellott, secretary.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked.

Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Trout's drug store; price 50c.

Miss Bess Vanclve is at present the guest of Miss Cornetta Nesbit.

After an absence of six years in the state of Iowa, her many friends extend to her a hearty welcome and offer congratulations on her success in launching through her energy, vim and charming personality, a most profitable millinery venture.

All honor to our girls who so bravely "give up life for a living" and prove their capacity by a life of usefulness in self-support.

Bathing and Health.

A cold bath—what might as well get at the straight of the thing—is not really a matter of cleanliness so much as a matter of getting the skin livened up and the capillaries and veins next to the surface full of blood.

The skin is almost exactly the same kind of an excreting organ as the lungs.

The same products seep through the pores as are carried off in the breath, and the air purifies the blood in the same way.

But the greater part of the skin is smothered up in clothes day and night.

What the cold water of the bath dissolves is matter well away.

And the rubbing dry is pretty vigorous exercise if you want to know.

Any rubbing is bound to push the blood along toward the heart and help the circulation, because there are valves in the veins which prevent the blood from going in any other direction than toward the heart.

Whatever loose flakes of outer cuticle are rubbed off we needn't worry about; plenty more where they came from.

The extra food the increased appetite demands will make good that trifling loss.

Medicine as a Profession.

In one of his recent "Fables in Slang," Mr. George Ade cleverly satirizes the chance for emolument in the medical profession as follows:

"Once there was a Young Man with a College Education, an assortment of Cravats and about $8 in Real Money, who was anxiously looking for his Life Work.

"He wanted to break into a Learned Profession so that he could wear his Good Clothes all of the Time and get the Coin without working too hard for it.

"His idea of a dignified Snap was to sit in a small Office about three hours every Day and have the Public come in and pass Money to him.

The Medical Game struck him as being about the softest proposition of all.

"He thought that all Doc had to do was to lead the Mark into the Chamber of Horrors where they have the Skulls and the Butcher Knives, look him over ask a few Questions, tell him to stop Smoking and then tap him for a V.

"So the Hopeful Graduate went to the old Family Physician for a few Tips.

"The Antique Medicine Man threw a Back Twister when he heard of the Boy's Intentions.

"Any one who tackles the Esculapian Stunt is a vitriol Mutt," said His Whiskers.

"If you must earn your Living by a Porch Climber or a Short Change Man, we now have in this country four Medical Degrees to every case of Tonsillitis.

Most of us are kept so close to the Carpet that we have to buy last year's Magazines to put in the Waiting Room.

If a Patient dies all of his Friends say that you helped to push him off, so they undermine your Practice and begin to plug for Christian Science.

If he gets well he gives you the Laugh, and you have to go after him with a Constable.

If you acquire a Reputation they work the Night-Bell on you, and if you arrange a Dinner Party it's a Cinch that some Old Lady three miles away will ring in an Epileptic Fit and crab your whole Evening.

Nix the Materia Medica! Turn back before it is too late!

No More Stomach Trouble.

All stomach troubles removed by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

It gives the stomach perfect rest by digesting what you eat without the stomach's aid.

The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health.

You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

J. D. Erskine, of Allentown, Mich., says, "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time.

My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks.

She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured.

She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief."

Sold at Trout's drug store.
