"The wind bloweth where it listeth," and for the past week it has deposited on the lawns of Second street a lot of objectionable litter in the shape of waste matter of the County Institute, which is a great offence to good housekeepers.

Hon. Jas. P. Sipes returned to Harrisburg Monday for the third week's work in the Pennsylvania legislature. Mr. Sipes has been appointed to serve on four committees, namely, Judiciary General, Agriculture, Bureau of Statistics, and Prisons and Gratuities.

The McGovern school in Tod township is closed for thirty days owing to the presence of scarlet fever in the family of the teacher Miss Minnie Mock. It is rumored that Miss Mock has a light attack; but, be this as it may, the directors have "chosen the wise part" in closing the school as a preventive measure; as no disease is more contagious in character.

We had a very pleasant call on Monday from Mr. John S. Hull, of Mansfield, O., who has been spending several weeks among his old-time Fulton county friends. He has been the guest, during the past week of Attorney Frank P. Lynch and other friends and relatives in town. Mr. Hull is a native of Bethel township, but went to Ohio about twenty-five years ago. He and the Editor were schoolmates at Professor Douglass' school at Needmore in the fall of 1862.

VALUABLE FARM and MILL PROPERTY At Private Sale.

The undersigned, on account of advancing years, and a desire to retire from the active management of business affairs, offers at private sale his Farm and Mill Property, situate 4 miles north of Hancock, Md., and 1 mile north of Warfordsburg, Pa.

THE FARM
contains 150 ACRES of finest quality of LIMESTONE LAND, nearly all of which is cleared and in high state of cultivation. The improvements consist of TWO GOOD FRAME DWELLING HOUSES, GOOD BARN and other out-buildings.

THE MILL
as to size, condition, location, large custom, and improved machinery, is one of the most desirable mill properties in the county. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and also the Washburn, are only 4 1/2 miles distant, and the new B. & O. "cut-off" will be within three-quarters of a mile of the mill. The mill is right in the heart of a rich fertile section of country, and is provided with first-class steam power to supplement in a day time the usually fine water supply.

This property will be SOLD AT A BARGAIN, and ON EASY TERMS. For further particulars inquire of BALTUS STIGERS, Warfordsburg, Pa.
