Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you. If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, bloating and heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. L. A. Soper, of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendation that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when anything disagrees with her." Sold at Trout's drug store.

CLEAR RIDGE.

The people of this community were greatly shocked to learn of the death of Harry Cutchall, formerly of this place, but of late a resident of Conemaugh. Death was caused by pneumonia.

Harry Stinson was a pleasant caller at John Winegardner's last Saturday and Sunday evening.

Nathan Stevens is singing "Rocked in the cradle of the deep." It's a girl.

There was a prize fight in our town Saturday evening between feather weight Stevens and heavy weight Brown. It was the greatest battle ever pulled off in this section of the county before a small crowd. Both boys fought like demons, giving and taking punishment that seemed beyond human endurance. The feather weight boy's ability to withstand the punishment alone saved him from what appeared to be an inevitable knockout on several occasions. Brown proved the best ring general, holding his opponent off and cleverly blocking wicked swings; in return, he bored in with left to body, and swung with right to head, landing effectively. In the second round with a succession to lefts to the head he had Stevens groggy, and a few seconds later felled him with a clout to the chin. In the third and fourth rounds the boys mixed things wickedly, both bleeding copiously when Stevens landed Brown on the jaw with the left forcing him to the rope followed by an upper cut to the chin with the right landing him to the floor. Brown not attempting to regain his position. Referee Ramsey sounded the gong and handed down his decision in favor of feather weight Stevens.

Women Evangelist's Sayings.

Mrs. Grace Welsch-Davis, the woman evangelist, who has opened the campaign of evangelization which is to extend to 400,000 people and fourteen denominations in the upper part of the anthracite coal field, has had remarkable success at the Bennett Presbyterian church at Luzerne, where she spoke all last week. Her addresses contain many epigrams, and some of the best are: "It takes nineteen drops of rain to keep twenty people from church."

"There is a big difference between praying and saying our prayers."

"Fermenting Christians spoil themselves and the whole surrounding atmosphere."

"The always ready Christians are a comfort to any church."

"One-third of the church is working for God and the other two thirds are looking on, doing nothing and asking why things are not done some other way."

"Jesus said: 'Ye must be born again' to a church member living a highly respectable moral life."

A Thousand Dollars Thrown Away.

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainville, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Sold by all dealers.

LOCUST GROVE.

Rosy Morris and Jennie Layton were the guests of Ira Smith Saturday night and Sunday.

One of our young men has been very obliging during the protracted meeting—conveying the neighbors to and from service.

I wish to correct an item which was in last week's News, in regard to Rev. Logue being buried in a snow drift on top of Siding Hill mountain. Instead of receiving any assistance, the merry party passed by like the priest did with the man who fell in the hands of the thieves—passed by, and wondered if he was hurt.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough caused by attack of la grippe. It heals the lungs. Sold by all dealers.

Times When You Should Go Home.

When tired, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at the very best, go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with more brilliancy than usual, go home and light the whole household. It is the best place of all, if we would but make it so. Life's great opportunities are never labeled.

To Break Off the Drink Habit.

The following is from an English paper. The grace of God empowering a determined will is the great remedy in the case of an enslaving thirst for liquor. But anything that will aid in the struggle is of value, and some of our readers may know of a victim who would be helped by this means in his struggle with the deadly habit of years.

"At a festival at a reformatory institution a gentleman said of the cure of the use of intoxicating drinks: 'I overcame the appetite by a recipe given to me by old Doctor Hatfield, one of those good old physicians who do not have a percentage with a neighboring druggist. When I called on him he said: "Now that you have the moral courage, I'll tell you the tonic which I have used with effect among my friends for twenty years." I expected, of course, some nasty medicine stuff; but no; he prescribed an orange every morning a half-hour before breakfast. "Take that and you will neither want liquor nor medicine." I have done so regularly, and find that the liquor has become repulsive. The taste of the orange is in the saliva of my tongue, and it would be as well to mix water and oil as rum with my taste.'"—Michigan Christian Advocate.
