WEST DUBLIN.

Mrs. Hiram Clevenger and son Harry and Mrs. Martin Laidig visited relatives in Trough Creek Valley, Huntingdon county, last week.

Clarence Berkstresser has returned from a short visit to Altoona.

John Coleman, who spent the past four years at Z. A. Shaw's, will return to Pittsburg this week where he has promise of employment.

There was a good attendance at Z. A. Shaw's sale on Thursday, and medium paices obtained.

The weather before and after St. Matthias's Day resulted in much of the snow leaving.

Traveling is somewhat difficult where the roads were drifted.

The result of the election in our township was a division of the offices almost equally between the two parties.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

BACK RUN.

Those who have been enjoying good sleighing for so long are now compelled to use their buggies.

Addie Motter, who has been confined to her home since December, is able to be out again.

Geo. Paylor, wife and son, Maynard, of Tod; John Hendershot and wife, Henry Carbaugh and Olive Mellott, of Clto; and David Clugston and daughter Helen, visited Wm. Paylor's last Sunday.

Mary Cooper, of Tod, spent from Saturday until Monday with friends in Ayr township.

A number of our people attended the sale in the Meadowgrounds last Saturday.

Miss Rachel Thomas is reported much better.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Sledding Party.

Through the courtesy of William Grissinger, a merry sledload of fourteen spent last Friday evening very pleasantly at the home of Zack Vallance and wife in Tod township.

While Geo. Snider and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Grissinger and Mr. and Mrs. Vallance talked of the dandy times they had in their younger days, the young folks enjoyed themselves with games and other innocent amusements.

Though the sledding was poor all seemed to enjoy themselves.
