Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is so often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. Sold by all dealers.

Local Institute.

An educational meeting was held at Oakdale school, March 4th. The meeting was called to order by the teacher, Letitia Peck.

The following questions were discussed: 1. Accuracy in school work. 2. How would you make school work interesting the latter part of the term? 3. How much home study would you require of pupils? 4. What is your aim as a teacher?

The questions were ably discussed by all the teachers present. A very large number of citizens and young people were present, and good order was maintained.

A Severe Cold for Three Months.

The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story. "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

COV. LT.

Feb. 25.—Frank Post, of Warfordsburg, visited Mamie O'Rourke last Sunday.

Miss Stella Sigel spent last week with Joseph Fisher's family.

Ezra L. Peck lost a valuable horse last week, the effects of colic.

Quite a number of our young folks attended the debate at Alpine last Friday evening.

Last Sunday evening two young men called at the home of one of our neighbors, and as it was a pleasant evening, the neighbor decided to take the family out for a sled ride and Steve and Lou accepted an invitation to accompany the party. All went lovely until they were fording the creek when there was a terrible crash—the ladies screamed—down went the sled. The young folks sat still and enjoyed themselves, while Pap went to the nearest farmhouse, borrowed a sled and the drive was resumed. We understand that Will is now in the market for a new sled.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bonnettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Trout's the druggist sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.

For the benefit of "Spruce Creek—Needmore" scribe, we will say that we do not have access to any school reports, neither do we think that our specs were upside down; but it is very easy to tell the pig that is fast in the fence by the squeal.
