M. R. SHAFER, Knobsville, Pa.

La grippe coughs yield quickly to the wonderful curative qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. There is nothing else "just as good."

Wanted at Paul Wagner's tannery, McConnellsburg, tallow, beefhides, horsehides, calfskins, at 3 sheepskins, for which the highest market price in cash will be paid.

A one-dollar bill received Monday from W. R. Morgret, Fairmount, Ill., puts a 6 on the label of his paper. Riley says he and his family are well, and hopes his friends among the hills of "old Fulton" are having a good time.

The Everett Press says that more than twenty of the teachers and officers of the different Sunday school of Everett met at the home of L. C. Mann and organized a class for the purpose of fitting themselves to be more efficient workers and teachers. They will devote part of the hour to the study of the Sunday school lesson and the remainder will be spent in the study as outlined in Dr. Hurlburt's Revised Normal Course.

It will pay Fulton county people visiting Chambersburg to take a little time, while in that town, to go in and see Wm. H. Ludwig's Jewelry Store. Mr. Ludwig's increasing business made it necessary to move into more commodious quarters, and you will now find his store in the new Trust Building. Give him a call and see one of the largest and most successful jewelry establishments in southern Pennsylvania.

Mr. William Keefer, of Ayr township, called at this office last Saturday to advance his subscription to the News. Mr. Keefer says that while no effort is made at his home to make poultry raising a specialty, his wife, during the past year, has sold from her own raising turkeys for which she received $34.66; ducks, $34.15; geese, $9.95, and chickens $61.29—making a total of $140.05, which is certainly not an insignificant addition to the income of any farmer's family.

ATTACKED BY A MOB and beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect."—Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.

Thanks, Brethren. March 4.—I wish to say through the News that myself and family were very agreeably surprised on Tuesday morning last week to see Eld. T. R. Palmer and Silas Mellott come to our house with a load of flour, meat, groceries, dry goods, and money as a donation, for which the people of Needmore and along Sideling Hill have our sincere thanks.

C. L. Funk, GOT OFF CHEAP.

He may well think, he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c at Trout's drug store; guaranteed.

Reduction Sale. In order to reduce my stock of general merchandise preparatory to leaving the county the first of April, I will, during the next fifteen days, close out my goods at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. This means just what it says.
