

W. B. Ranck, of Warfordsburg, was among the visitors that remembered the printer while at court this week.

Henry H. Deshong, of Sipes Mill, and John W. Bard, of Eumaville, spent a few hours in town last Thursday.

S. O. Fraker, of Orbisonia, has sold his telephone line, known as the Shade Gap line to the Tuscarora Valley Telephone Company.

George A. Winters, of Plum Run, is the inventor of a milling stool, which, for simplicity and perfection, exceeds anything in that line yet brought to our attention.

Mrs. Wm. M. Dixon and daughter, Margaret, of Pittsburg, are visiting Mrs. Dixon's mother, Mrs. E. L. Daniels, of Licking Creek township.

The following managers have been elected for the Chambersburg & Bedford turnpike company: D. V. Sipes, McConnellsburg; David Brake, St. Thomas; M. J. Slick, Mercersburg; D. B. Nace and J. A. Strite, Chambersburg. The board met and elected Mr. Strite president and Mr. Slick secretary and treasurer.

BY THE TONIC ROUTE.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are De Witt's Little Early Risers. They cure headache, constipation, biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Josie Amy Peck.

This community was greatly shocked Friday morning by the sudden and unexpected death of Josie Amy, daughter of Jacob Peck and wife, of Thompson township, of that dreaded disease, cholera infantum, aged 1 year, 9 months and 25 days. She became ill Sunday afternoon and steadily grew worse until Friday morning when her spirit wafted away and went back to the God that gave it. Josie was a bright little baby and was greatly beloved by all her friends and neighbors.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Antioch cemetery, Saturday, and was followed to her last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends, there to remain to the resurrection morn, when it will come forth at the sound of the trumpet to meet its Saviour in the skies. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this their hour of affliction.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

George Kauffman intends to purchase a new traction engine. Frank Shives and Jacob Kauffman were in McConnellsburg last Wednesday before the Examining Board.

Riley Truax spent Saturday night the guest of Jared Pittman in Thompson township.

Sylvester Shives and George Wink expect to go to Franklin county to work.

Andrew Truax received word Saturday morning of the death of his little grand-daughter Nellie Morse at Breezewood, Bedford county. Interment at Siding Hill Baptist church Sunday.

Siebert Barton and sister Ellie of Brush Creek, spent Saturday with their sister Miss Ada at Andover.

The readers of the News need not be surprised if the News comes out edited by the reporter at Pleasant Ridge, as some of the people think that he had better buy the plant from the present editor and run the paper. We would if we had the money. Probably one of them would lend it to us.

COUGH SETTLED ON HER LUNGS.

"My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill. "We tried a great many remedies without relief, until we gave her Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her." Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

Friday, March 24, S. K. Pittman, having sold his real estate at Harrisonville, will sell at public sale, his stock, household goods, store goods, &c. Sale begins at 10 o'clock. He will also begin to auction off his store goods on Saturday 18th at 1 o'clock, to be continued.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

English and French Styles Contrasted. The difference between the English and French styles of walking suits is brought out in an article in the New Idea Woman's Magazine for April, where it is stated that the ornate styles in vogue for dressy occasions, trimmed with passementerie, fancy galloons, braids and lace ruffles, are French in their origin, while the English model "is confined to morning frocks, is extremely simple in design," and is cut "in mannish fashion." In regard to the peplum effect introduced last season and prominent in this season's styles, the writer says: "The peplum is very chic on slim figures, but it is not so becoming to the more rounded ones. For such figures, the blouse should end in a postilion or a smart belt."

A Severe Cold for Three Months. The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story. "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

THE APRIL SMART SET.

In the novelette which opens the April Smart Set, Grace MacGowan Cooke has struck an entirely new note in fiction. It is a story of the West, so saturated with the atmosphere of that part of our country and so photographic in its depiction of ranch life that it will take high rank among the best tales of that class; yet it is more as a character study that "The Red-Headed Woman" will win praise. The heroine is the most original, the most human, the most refreshing woman, who for a long time has stepped from a printed page. There is no reader who will not be fascinated by her vagaries and interested in her remarkable career.
