WELLS TANNERY.

At the Presbyterian parsonage in Everett on Tuesday evening of last week our townsman, James D. Foote and Mrs. Florence Sipes of Everett, were united in marriage by Rev. Kennedy.

On Saturday the bride and groom came to the latter's home in this place and in the evening men, women, boys, and girls turned out and made the welkin ring with an old time calithumpian serenade.

Mr. Foote and D. L. Barnett have rented a room in Everett where they will soon engage in business.

The people of this community regret to lose Mr. Foote as a citizen for as a silversmith he cannot be excelled.

Harry Spangler and wife, of Pittsburg, have tired of the smoky place, and returned to the home of his parents. We welcome them back.

Mrs. J. H. Meredith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Blanche McGlathery in Altoona.

Hon. S. P. Wishart and W. H. Baumgardner were in Everett on business last Thursday.

The many friends of Mrs. J. C. Kirk sympathize with her in her affliction. She has been in Pittsburg two weeks under treatment; and in last letter from her, she could not say when she could come home.

Prof. H. M. and Mrs. Griffith have been very sick for more than a week. Mr. Griffith has pleurisy and Mrs. Griffith a severe relapse from gripe. The Professor's illness causes a delay in the High school.

Master Harry Schenck has been sick, but is improving now. We have just heard of two more marriages—Robert, son of George W. Swope, to a Miss Dotson, of Cypher, and Harvey Heckman to a Miss Ridenour.

John Snow, of Robinsonville, brought his family to the home of his mother here and will in the near future move into one of W. L. Woodcock's houses.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters.

S A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Trout's the druggist sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle.
