MY DEAR MR. LEIDIG,—
Please send to my address one of those seventeen Jeweled Conococheague watches of which I have heard so many favorable comments. I enclose check for $15.00, the amount at which I saw them advertised. Later I will have the movement put into a solid gold case, at present I will have to be satisfied with the nickel case. I see that you are advertising solid gold signet rings for children at 85 cents each, suppose you send one along large enough to fit a five year old youngster.

Yours truly
GEORGE
