W. B. Anderson, who has spent the past fifteen years in Pittsburg and suburbs purchased last fall, the Samuel Rotz, Sr., property in Tod township, and moved into it last week. Mr. Anderson is a fine machinist, and was making good money, but he felt that his health demanded that he should leave the city and get out where he could breathe his lungs all the time filled with the ozone, of which Fulton county air is especially rich.

Full of Tragic Meaning.

are these lines from J. H. Simmons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Trout's the druggist; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Surprised.

When Mrs. Adams and daughter Henrietta unlocked the front door of the parsonage last Friday afternoon on their return from Everett and Bedford where they had visited friends during Conference week, they were greeted by a house full of members of the McConnellsburg Methodist Episcopal congregation to which Mr. Adams was assigned for a third year.

It was not, however, in the program that these estimable ladies and gentlemen should be in the manse when their pastor and family returned, but rather to visit his home in his absence from it, unload their well filled basket of their substantial contents, and disperse then to await his query as to how they, unoffending and peace loving citizens could effect an entrance to his home when every window was fastened, every shutter closed, and the key of the door in his pocket.

But the program was compelled to change, for instead of his returning at 4 p. m., as his friends supposed, he arrived at 2:45, and was on hand in ample time to express his appreciation—both of their cordial expressions of welcome and of the generous old fashioned donation which they so thoughtfully and kindly provided.

CALIFORNIA

Do you want to live where the climate is mild the year round—where labor is never oppressed by stress of weather, and where animal vitality is never lost by mere conflict with cold?

Do you want to live in a region where the resources are more varied than in any other equal area in the world, where the division of great ranches affords a fine opportunity to get a small farm that will assure you a competence?

Do you want to live where, with a minimum of labor, you can grow profitable crops of grapes and small fruit, oranges, lemons, olives, prunes and almonds, alfalfa and grain, where crops are sure, business is good and capital easily finds profitable investment?

Then go to California, where both health and opportunity await your coming.
