CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

How often great blunders are committed in an effort to repair little ones.

All men are liberal; some to those who are in need, and others to themselves.

Sometimes it is well enough not to speak your mind, but to mind your speak.

One always likes to hear a pretty girl talk, even if she doesn't say anything.

Remember that you are not game just because some big man makes you quail.

In one respect the ladies have a parallel. The spring chicken never tells its age.

Foley's Kidney Cure makes kidney and bladder right. Don't delay taking. Sold by all dealers.

Perhaps the reason why so many barkeepers are baldheaded is that they are such authorities on tights.

Good qualities are the substantial riches of the mind; but it is good breeding that sets them off to advantage.

Almost everybody in this unselfish world takes a keen interest in having his neighbors keep their back-yards clean.

FOR SALE.—An Iron Gray Horse, 4 years old. Will work wherever hitched. Good double or single driver. Call or address N. E. HOOVER, Hustontown, Pa.

Davie Gillis bought one of the Shaffner lots in the Extension yesterday, and we are informed, intends to erect thereon a nice dwelling house.

W. U. Brewer, a Chambersburg lawyer, who frequently practices in our courts, has been appointed recently to a position in the consular service in England.

Rev. B. A. Salter of the Hustontown charge, is going to spend a month with his father at Sunbury, as his doctor prescribed that he needed a rest. Rev. Wesley Cline of Fort Littleton, will take charge of his work until he gets back.

The Mechanics band of Clear Ridge, who had intended holding a social on the evening of April 1st, but had it postponed on account of the death of John Huston, will have the same, April 15th, in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall at Clear Ridge.

NEEDMORE.

Rev. Hendershot has been spending a few days with our village blacksmith, D. Garland.

Frank Mellott has been on the sick list, but is now rapidly improving under the care of Dr. Swartzweider.

E. N. Akers and Levi Mellott were business callers in this town last Saturday.

There were only four pupils from the nine schools in Belfast to take the spring examination here last Saturday.

In regards to the citizens of this town being annoyed by the squealing of a pig that was fast in the fence, I will say that it is few pigs that would not get fast in the fence when there are several hounds and two or three curs that are continually snapping and growling behind his back.

A Tried and True Friend.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. says: "Coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. After trying a number of remedies to no avail, One Minute Cough Cure entirely cured me." Sold at Trout's drug store.

BURNING CABINS.

The snow storm last Friday made us feel as though winter was returning.

Mrs. Rosa Clark's mother, Mrs. Galvin, near Fort Littleton, is spending some time with her. John Mamma is singing "Lullaby." It's a twin boy and girl. Mrs. Daniel Skipper attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Shaffer, at Chambersburg, last Saturday.

L. C. Kelly has sold his store to Benson Kling, of Fayetteville, Pa.

Nicholas Metzler, near this place, is very ill at this writing.

J. C. McTiwan moved Monday into Josephine Hammond's house, vacated by Thomas Briggs.

Mrs. Isaac Houck is suffering from a very sore arm, caused by bruising her finger on the sewing machine.

Ed Horton and family spent Sunday at Shade Gap with Geo. Carlson's.

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough. Mrs. Ellen Harlison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

HUSTONTOWN.

Hustontown is geographically located in the north-eastern part of Fulton county, Pennsylvania, and has a population of 141—an increase of 20 since the first of the year, and would have increased 20 more had not the supply of houses become exhausted. It contains 44 dwelling houses, 2 churches, 1 furniture store, 1 hardware store, 3 general stores, 1 hotel, 2 milliner shops, 1 town hall, 1 marble shop, 1 planing mill, 1 chopping mill, 3 blacksmith shops, 1 long-distance telephone office, 3 local offices, a physician, a dentist, a minister, 3 school teachers, 2 leather workers, an operator, a gunsmith, a brass band, 3 societies and lodges, an undertaker, a watch tinker, a buggy dealer, 2 painters, a stone mason, a plasterer, 4 carpenters, 1 pensioner, (drawing an aggregate of $2520 a year from Uncle Sam), a man who knows it all, a prevaricator, a gossip, a man who don't like the preacher when it costs something to do so, a selfish man, and the usual number of professional loafers.

B. E. and John Cutchall of Six Mile Run, visited their parents in this place a few hours last Sunday.

S. F. Keepers sold his horse and little farm last week. B. C. and H. R. Lamberson being the purchasers of the latter.

Make Money In California
If you are industrious and capable you can make money there. The big ranches are breaking up into small farms that need more workers to care for the increased product. The towns and cities are prosperous because the country is prosperous. There are great valleys of the richest soil in America waiting for you. If you have a little capital you can own one of these small farms yourself, or you can rent one on shares and pay for it out of the product in a few years. We will send you descriptive booklets and folders giving full information about the money-making opportunities for every member of the family. You want to see what the country is really like; you can go there, work a few months, enjoy the delightful climate, the flowers, fruit and scenery, and earn enough to pay your expenses both ways by taking advantage of the
