A country boy wanted to learn trade. Will have a good home and good wages while learning. Must be right handed. Address Lock Box 11, McConnellsburg, Pa.

During March, snow fell three times and brought the total fall during the winter up to 50.3 inches. This surpassed by nearly twelve inches the snowfall of the previous winter.

Mercantile Appraiser George W. Hixson and daughter Miss Clara of Brush Creek valley were guests of John V. Stouteagle's family on Monday. It was Clara's first visit to the County Seat.

Mrs. Mary Ann, widow of the late Wm. A. Bowles, died at her home at Hancock on the 3d inst., aged 79 years. Mrs. Bowles was twice married—her first husband being Mr. Nelson McKinley.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Dickson, of this place, have issued invitations announcing the marriage of their daughter, Alice Duffield, to Merrill W. Nace in the Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening, April 19th.

Governor Pennypacker has signed the bill prohibiting the sale or use of fire-works, fire-crackers, pistols, explosives, canes and ammunition containing chlorate of potash and other high explosive compounds.

Rev. Ray H. Carter has formally tendered his resignation as pastor of the Falling Springs Presbyterian church, Chambersburg, and will go as a representative of the Falling Springs church to the Mission field of India next fall.

W. D. Myers was last week re-elected assistant Burgess of Hancock. Davy has been on the council in one or another capacity ever since he went to Hancock, and last week had the highest number of votes of any man on the ticket.

The Barton house, at Hancock, has ceased to be a hotel, after having been a hostelry for nearly 100 years. It will be converted into a store and apartments. Many famous public men have been entertained within its walls, especially in the days of stage coaches on the old National pike. Mr. R. E. Taney boarded there for nearly 45 years, says the Star, and during his sojourn drank enough coffee to float a canal boat.

Most of our boys are interested in the war news from the struggle between Japan and Russia. It is quite a prevalent idea that Japan is a "little" nation. Of course it does not spread over the earth like Russia but it isn't so very small after all. Without counting Formosa which belongs to it, Japan is larger than the British isles by 27,000 square miles. The population is 3,000,000 greater than France. Japan has sent out an army of more than 400,000 to fight Russia. That is larger than Napoleon III had at the beginning of the Franco-Prussian war. Of the six armies sent to fight each was as large as that of either party at Waterloo. During the present contest it has shown itself among the first class maritime powers. Taken altogether Japan is about the biggest little nation in the world although it does not look big on the map.

B. C. LAMBERSON.

A Tried and True Friend.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., says: "Coughing and straining so weakened me that I run down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. After trying a number of remedies to no avail, One Minute Cough Cure entirely cured me." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Everything About a Wedding.

The New Idea Woman's Magazine for May contains a number of articles apropos to the ever-recurring spring wedding. Charlotte Milward writes on wedding-gowns, and gives it as her opinion that, although sentiment still inclines many girls to the traditional white satin for their bridal dresses, this material is not nearly so much in accord with the fashions and taste of the present day as the softer and newer creations in chiffons, lace, net, supple silks, crepe de Chine or crepe de Paris. An article by Frances Welch-Britton takes up the etiquette of weddings, and details the proper forms, from the invitations to the rice shower. Wedding-breakfast menus and recipes for home-made wedding-cakes are given in the cooking columns; and Esperance Goodlove contributes an article on marriage as it appeals to the business woman, in which she concludes that "the girl who has had her liberty, who has fought her own battles and heartily enjoys the fighting, none the less enjoys more deeply than she will, perhaps, admit, the womanly occupation of depending on a man."

A CHATTANOOGA DRUGGIST'S STATEMENT.

Robt. J. Miller, Proprietor of the Read House Drug Store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in Foley's Honey and Tar than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined." Sold by all dealers.

Thomas B. Stevens purchased a lot of ground from W. H. Nesbit on the north side of Water street and is erecting thereon a two story frame building 32x36 feet. The first floor will contain a hall and two store rooms. The floor on the second story west of the hallway will be divided into two rooms which will be fitted up as dental parlors, and will be occupied by Dr. Stevens as soon as they are completed. The rooms on the first floor will be used by the owner in which he will carry a stock of furniture and general housefurnishing goods. The building is well under way and it will be open for business in the near future.
