The demand for "fresh roasted peanuts" in Mercersburg has made it necessary to install a new latest improved gasoline roaster in that town. The Journal says that they now have six roasters, and the man who installed the first one does more business now than he did when he first put in his machine.

The Hancock Star says that Buck Valley was so named because of the deer that used to abound there. It still retains the name because of the deers there now. In colonial times it was Whipple's Cove or Sarah's Manor, said to be a tract of land set aside for William Penn's eldest daughter, Sarah.

When'er you feel impending ill, And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill, Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The famous little pills "EARLY RISERS" cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for either children or adults. J. C. P. CHILDREN SAVE OVER $90,000.

Pupils in Pittsburg Schools Have That Amount in Bank

It will surprise most people to learn that the school children of Pittsburg have upwards of $90,000 on deposit in bank. It is true, however, and the plan of savings for children, which was only started a few years ago, is proving so much of a success that more schools are adopting it each year and now the bank is collecting the childish savings each week from thirty schools.

The school savings bank scheme is in operation most successfully in Long Island City, one of the boroughs of the Greater New York, where it was introduced by J. H. Thiry, who copyrighted it. W. J. Jones, of the Pittsburg Bank for Savings, became interested in the idea, and when he visited New York went across to Long Island City and investigated it, and coming home introduced it here. Speaking of the plan yesterday Mr. Jones said:

"We have now about thirty of the public schools of Pittsburg besides a number of the parochial schools and the plan is growing in popularity every month. A young man from our bank goes to the school at a certain time each week and collects the money from the children. Each child has a book made out in his or her name, and is allowed 4 per cent. on the deposit, the same as other depositors. The money can be drawn out only when the book is signed by the parents or guardians and the principal of the school for identification. As a business man I favor this plan, as it trains the child to habits of saving and tends to curtail the cigarette and candy habits. As no one but the child and the parents know how much or how little is deposited, there can be no comparisons to wound the feeling of those who, by their circumstances, are unable to save anything. And I may say that the little hoards prove almost a god-send sometimes to families overtaken by some unforeseen misfortune. In other cases the child amasses a neat little sum to have on hand when life is run outside the schools."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Strictly Genuine.
Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office to-day, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Henry E. Baker, a respected farmer who lived near Marion, Franklin county, met death in a peculiar manner, Monday evening. Mr. Baker who made his home with William Hurd, tenant on Mr. Baker's large farm, had gone to the creek, not far from the farm house, with a pail for water. While stooping over to fill the pail it is supposed that he was stricken with vertigo or probably apoplexy and he fell face downward into the stream. His absence was noted and a search made. He was found dead, death having, undoubtedly, been due to drowning.

THAT NEW STATE.

Governor Stone Would Divorce Us From Philadelphia.

Ex Governor Stone, Pittsburg, advocates the division of Pennsylvania into two states, with the Susquehanna river as the dividing line. Mr. Stone has written a letter on this subject to the Pittsburg Leader in which he explains the advantage of such a division on both sides of the line.

"Owing to the fact that the great centre of population is in Philadelphia and its surroundings in the extreme western end of the state," he says, "there necessarily arises frequent unrest and irritation in the country districts over the Philadelphia methods. No man appreciated this better than did Senator Quay, who had been the practical political leader in Pennsylvania since the Civil War. He was always able to hold the balance of power and moderate the modern politics of Philadelphia."

"But to-day Philadelphia leads and dictates the politics of the State absolutely the legislative appropriations, appointments, Federal and state, and everything that affects the material welfare of the whole State."

A DISASTROUS CALAMITY.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr., of the Republican, of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "We concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed at Trout's drug store, price 50c.

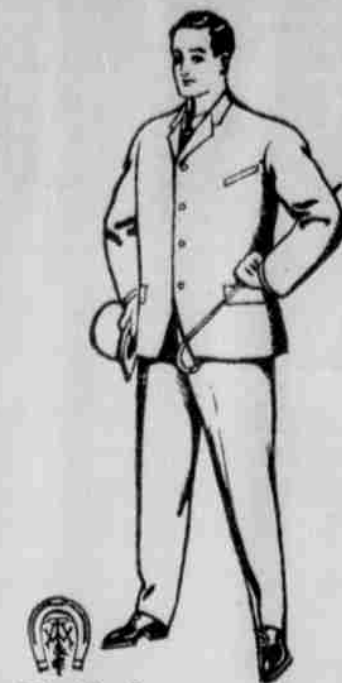

The many friends in this place of Rev. Lewis Chambers, of Big Cove Tannery, were pleased to see him in town last Friday. It was his first visit to the County Seat since last October, he having been confined to his home during most of the winter, on account of ill health.

Time Will Tell!

Time tells all things, and two months of our wonderful bargain selling is having its effect.

New customers every day shows that our goods and prices are pleasing. We are more than delighted with the way our trade is growing, and we hope to increase it much more. During May every possible inducement will be offered to make it the banner month of the year.
