John D. Smith, of Emmaville, and son-in-law, Frank M. Diehl, of Whips Cove, were in town Monday. Frank lifted his commission as Justice of the Peace, and is now ready for business. Among other supplies, he took home with him a few of those latest-improved, never slip matrimonial knots that are so popular just now, and any of our young friends over there who want to find out how tight he can tie them up for life, have only to give him the tip.

Miss Estella Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rush Brewer, died at the home of her parents in the Little Cove, on Monday morning of last week. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday forenoon by her pastor, Rev. A. G. Wolf, of this place. Miss Brewer was in her 20th year, a graduate of the Shippensburg State Normal School and a teacher by profession, having taught successfully for several terms in her home township.

Traveling is Dangerous.

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Hausan, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by all dealers.

Composite-Observation Cars.
"Something entirely new has been placed on the Overland Limited trains. It is a 'composite-observation' car. It affords women passengers an opportunity of enjoying the scenery with the greatest comfort and free from the fumes of tobacco smoke. Throughout the car there has been placed a series of steel arches, which bind sills and sides together and strengthen the roof in a manner which renders the car almost indestructible."—Chicago Chronicle.

The Overland Limited leaves Union Passenger Station, Chicago, 6.05 p. m. daily. Arrives San Francisco the third day in time for dinner. Route—Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific line.

Strikingly Attractive May Millinery

This business has flourished and grown great because it has been built on the firm foundation of worthy merchandise and close profits.

Our Millinery Leadership is very Pronounced
You'll find here, ready-to-wear and tailored hats, trimmed hats, "chic" and stylish, originally designed by our special expert milliner. This is the second season we have given our patrons the benefit of an exclusive city modiste. Our millinery has won undisputed prestige for our store.

Hundreds of Hats
All prices, trimmed and untrimmed, in stock. Children's hats, baby bonnets, caps and cloaks, gorgeous flowers, beautiful foliage, elegant plumes and ribbons, unequalled in quality and splendor, ready for your inspection and selection.

This is the Strongest Lace Season Known for Many Years.
We have therefore prepared for you a tempting assortment of attractive patterns in Valenciennes, English laces, German laces, Venise and Oriental, all-over laces, black, white and cream, at surprisingly low prices.

We Call Your Attention to the folly of sending to the big city houses for goods you could buy at home for less money. Your trade belongs to us, and you will find on our counters a line of smart dress fabrics unrivaled by any store.
