CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness.

M. C. Greenland, of Wells Valley, spent a few hours in town last Wednesday.

W. E. Bair and Isaiah Kline, of Salvia, were McConnellsburg visitors Saturday.

Mrs. G. J. Mellott and Mrs. Harvey Lynch, of Gem, were in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Martin of the Cove, started on Monday for a western trip.

You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.

The Bible is full of meek men, but is strangely reticent about women who had that characteristic.

Harry Goldsmith, of Everett, spent a couple of days in this place on business the first of this week.

Ex-Prothonotary Jas. P. Waltz spent a day or two at his Tod township residence the first of the week.

The McConnellsburg Horse Company have just purchased a fine thorough-bred stallion from an Ohio stock farm.

Mrs. Keza Johnston and daughter Miss Ella, left this morning for an extended visit among relatives and friends in the West.

J. C. Foster and daughter Miss Della, of Enid, spent Saturday night with the family of his uncle Daniel Mock, in Todd.

Mr. Daniel Rinehart and niece Miss Edna McClain of Gracey, were pleasant callers at this office on Thursday of last week.

George W. Sipe, of Denver, Col., and Loy Hollenshead, of Harrisonville, spent Saturday afternoon in town on business.

John B. Runyan, wife and daughter Josephine, went over to Needmore last Friday and returned via the May Meeting at Sideling Hill Sunday.

George W. Comer, a hustling lumber manufacturer, of Burnt Cabins, was in town on business last Saturday. With his recent purchases of timber land, he has work ahead for a long time.

During a brief absence of Alex Kirk from his meat market just before noon yesterday, some one went in, and with a cleaver, pried open the money drawer and went away with the contents. An arrest will probably follow soon.

The new barn which Henry Truax is having erected on his farm at Enid in Wells Valley, was raised last Thursday without accident. The architects and builders are Messrs. Levi Truax and Charlie Deshong, and the work will rapidly be pushed ahead to completion.

Governor Pennypacker has approved the bill recommended by him in his annual message for the creation of a State constabulary of four companies of fifty men each, with a captain and lieutenant, the whole to be in command of a superintendent, who will have his office located in Harrisburg. The bill carries an appropriation of $425,000.

A man may be able to hivy the stars in a nail keg, hang the ocean on a rail fence to dry, put the sky to sleep in a gourd, unbuckle the girth of eternity and let the sun and moon out, but if he fails to assist his wife in cleaning the carpets and moving the furniture at house cleaning time, he may have a hard time to escape the place which lies on the other side of purgatory.

Traveling is Dangerous.

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much, suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. E. Haffsan, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by all dealers.

PROF. LAMBERSON'S SCHOOL.

Opened Monday Afternoon with a Large Attendance, and More to Follow.

There was quite a stir in town Monday occasioned by the arrival of students to attend the Normal school here during the next few weeks. The roll shows that 66 are in, and Mr. Lamberson, expects a tumber more.

Prof. Gilbert Mellott, of Webster Mills, is assisting Mr. Lamberson. The students are a body of fine looking young people, and we trust their stay in McConnellsburg may be mutually pleasant, both to themselves and to the people of the town.

Following is a list of those enrolled:

Akers, Bessie. Baker, Elsie; Bard, Ida F.; Bernhard, Sherman.

Chesnut, May; Cleveger, Edward J.; Chesnut, Eugene.

ANDOVER.

The farmers of this part of the country are done planting corn and some have begun plowing for buckwheat.

Cleveland Mellott and brother-in-law have moved their saw-mill to David Kline's where they are sawing out a bill of lumber for a new house.

Mrs. Susan May, who is nearly 80 years age, walked from her home Saturday a distance of about six miles in about three hours to visit her nephew Jackson Strait and family.

The baptismal and funeral services at the Sideling Hill Christian church Sunday were well attended; but the rain caused some to seek shelter before reaching home.

If the writer of the Windy Ridge items in last week's News would clean up his own mistakes maybe he would not be so ready to accuse others. In regard to H. C. Mumma being out on crutches, the paper does not say so or at least mine does not. This was no mistake of the Editor, or the writer, but the reader; an old saying, the farther a story goes the longer it gets.

Geo. Sipes has purchased a new set of harness and a wagon. S. R. Strait went Saturday afternoon to call on friends, but found no one at home.

W. H. Peck, of Gem, spent a few hours in town Monday.

Rev. Lewis Chambers of Big Cove Tannery, spent from Friday until Monday among his many friends in town, and attended the Quarterly Meeting services in the Methodist church. Mr. Chambers preached in the M. E. church on Sunday evening to a large and appreciative congregation. Although in his eighty-sixth year, the mental faculties of brother Chambers are clear and strong, and his sermon was a great treat to those who were fortunate to hear it.

Egg Weighs Five Ounces.

Mrs. A. N. Witter, wife of the genial merchant and postmaster up at Waterfall, has a Plymouth Rock hen that a few days ago laid an egg that weighed five ounces, and that measured 7 1/2 inches by the shorter circumference, and 8 1/2 inches by the longer. That is about the weight of four ordinary hen eggs. Mr. Witter has been in the mercantile business twenty-two years; and during that time, has handled about 75,000 dozen eggs, but this one breaks the record for size and weight, in all his experience.

When'er you feel impending ill, And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill, Lake DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The famous little pills "EARLY RISERS" cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for either children or adults. J. C. P. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg Borough, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housekeeping, that gave such satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold at Trout's drug store.

GEM.

Our farmers are busy with their corn planting. Colly McElldowney is able to walk around again after a severe attack of rheumatism.

G. C. Sipes spent Thursday with friends on this side of the mountain.

Thomas Rash and wife are spending some time with their son Edward.

J. L. Garland is having a tract of timber sawed.

S. L. Wink, one of Belfast's successful teachers, called on friends near Gem last Thursday evening, when on his way to McKeesport, where he has secured employment for the summer.

J. P. Peck and wife, of Knobsville, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends here, and attended May meeting at Sideling Hill.

Thomas Wink, of Sipes Mill, an experienced chicken raiser, notes that he set a hen on thirteen eggs, from which fourteen chickens were hatched, and six eggs yet to hatch. Tom is pleased with his prospects for poultry.
