CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Foley's Honey and Tar is peculiarly adapted for asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness.

Six new students at Prof. Lamberson's school this week. Seventy-two now.

James R. Sharpe, president of the Fulton County Mutual Fire Insurance Company spent last night in McConnellsburg.

You never heard of any one using Foley's Honey and Tar and not being satisfied.

A vein of silver has been discovered on lands north of Massey and the Bruce mines, near North Bay, Ontario. Four car loads of the ore, shipped to a smelting plant in New Jersey, netted $60,000, and two more car loads have been forwarded, which it is expected will average $15,000 per car.

Dr. J. J. Pittman this week sold his fine Monticello saddle horse, 4 years old, to Mr. C. Morton Stewart, of Baltimore, for $250. Mr. Stewart is a leading figure in the famous Green Spring Valley Hunt Club, of Baltimore county, and the horse he purchased of Dr. Pittman will be added to the magnificent collection of horses used by the club. Mr. W. O. Norris effected the sale to Mr. Stewart. — Farmers' Advocate, Charles town, Va., May 20th.

When'er you feel impending ill, And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill, Like DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The famous little pills "EARLY RISERS" cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for either children or adults. J. C. P. Jones, Chief Burgess, Milesburg Borough, Pa., says: "I never used pills in my family during the forty years of housekeeping, that gave such satisfactory results as DeWitt's Little Early Risers." Sold at Trout's drug store.

Down in Schuylkill county the authorities are after crooked school directors who sell schools to the highest bidders. In the town of Shenandoah one teacher said she paid three hundred dollars for a school and even at that price was told she would only get the school in the event of no one else paying more. Over in Indiana county the price isn't so high. In some of the back townships the price fixed by directors is from fifteen to twenty-five dollars.

Barn Burned.

The big bank barn on the Dawney farm three miles north of Hustontown, now owned and occupied by Charlie Brown was totally destroyed by fire Monday night. Origin of fire unknown. Loss partly covered by insurance.

Presbyterians Unite.

Without a speech and without a dissenting vote the Cumberland Presbyterian church was voted into the General Assembly amid a storm of applause on Monday.

This was the final action of the General Assembly at its meeting at Winona, Ind., on one of the greatest questions that has come before it since the Civil War. By it is brought back into the general organization a branch which withdrew from the original denomination February 4, 1860, because of difference over the question of slavery.

A special committee appointed last Sunday canvassed the votes taken by the Presbyteries on the question of union. This canvass showed 144 votes in favor of the union and 89 against; 2 took no action. 1 gave conditional assent and 5 made no report.

A DISASTROUS CALAMITY.

It is a disastrous calamity, when you lose your health, because indigestion and constipation have sapped it away. Prompt relief can be had in Dr. King's New Life Pills. They build up your digestive organs, and cure headache, dizziness, colic, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at Trout's drug store; 25c.

One Minute Cough Cure For Coughs, Colds and Croup.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING.

Ten mills make one cent; ten cents make one drink; ten drinks make one drunk.

Have a care, girl!—have a care! Adele Millet, a French maiden, has been hugged to death.

If you intend to do a mean thing wait till to-morrow. If you are to do a noble thug, do it now.

No man ever acknowledged a mistake as quickly as when he puts the lighted end of a cigar in his mouth.

A coquette is a rosebud from which each young beau plucks a leaf, and the thorns are left for husband.

A minister recently prayed for those of his congregation who were "too proud to kneel and too lazy to stand."

"He's the soul of generosity." "I have noticed that whenever he speaks he gives even himself away."—Houston Post.

"Ah," sighed a hungry tramp, "I wish I was a boss. He's nearly always got a bit in his mouth, while I haven't had a bit in mine for two days."

Prudence—I think short skirts are just horrid!

Faith—So do I. No woman who respects herself would be seen in a skirt too short to need holding up.

The Judge—But your statement doesn't agree with that of the last witness.

The Witness—That is easily explained, your honor. He's a bigger liar than I am.

God's integrity is built all around us like a glorious wall of defence. Like that which encloses some wide and wonderful garden, it is green with the vines of His promises and beautiful with the blossoms of His love.

A clergyman returned from Manila lectured in San Francisco the other day. He said that in a municipal parade in Manila among the processionists was a company of city rat catchers, who marched trap in hand.

Mrs. Cutting Hintz (hugging him)—Ah! I love you so, dearest. Can you let me have that $10 you promised me?

Cutting Hintz—Now I understand what it means to be pressed for money.

Once upon a time, so the story runs, there was a boy too indolent to say his prayers, so he wrote him one and glued it to the head of his bed. When he tumbled in at night he would point to it and say, "Lord, them's my sentiments."

If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a hound or a cur and he will try to alter the map of your face. He doesn't mind being called a bull or a bear, yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer, too.

Call a girl a chick and she smiles; call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she hates you. Women are queer.

Several years ago a hopeful young minister left these shores for the Cannibal Island, as a missionary. On arriving at the end of his journey the natives weighed him and cut a silver off his leg as a sample. He came home by the next boat, and is now the traveling agent of a circus.

Biggs—I never saw a man who could meet death without blanching.

Diggs—Why, what's the matter with your two sons?

Biggs—what do you mean?

Diggs—Well, I should think they ought to be able to do it; one is a doctor and the other is an undertaker.

Taking his vacation: Jenkinson is having his fortnight off. As he was leaving the house the other morning, Mrs. J. presented her lips for the customary parting kiss; but Jenkinson, the brute, turned on his heel with the remark, "Not this morning, 'Tilda; I'm on my vacation, you know." Evidently Jenkinson is bound to get all the recreation possible out of his vacation.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for children; safe, sure. No opiates.

Ball Game.

Down at the Second Mill last Saturday afternoon the Hustontown boys played our home team, and scored their second victory over our feather-weights. It was a good game, and the score was even up to the beginning of the eighth inning, when our boys did some wild playing, became rattled, and then their opponents had nothing left to do than to clean them up, which they did in great shape.

Here is the lineup and score: Hustontown. M'Connellsb'g. Hoover, W., p Wagner, Roy, Lamberson, c Doyle, McClain, ss Helman, Deavor, rf Johnston, H. Woodcock, cf Irwin, Barton, lf Dickson, Hoover, N. E., lb Fisher, Hoover, C., 2b Johnston, P. Sipes, 3b Shiner.
