

J. E. Lyon, of West Dublin, was in town Monday.

The largest line of nobby straw hats at J. K. Johnston's.

Mrs. L. H. Youse spent Monday with friends at Mercersburg.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and can safely be given to children.

You can buy a watch guaranteed for 1 year for 75c. at J. K. Johnston's.

The Crystal Springs camp meeting will open August 15th and continue ten days.

Take your Wool, Butter and Eggs to Huston's at Saltillo and you will go home with bargains.

This is a good time to subscribe for the FULTON COUNTY NEWS. Only a dollar a year in advance.

John Shaffer was at Mercersburg on business, Monday, and while there, he purchased a fine buggy.

You will be well dressed if you buy that Suit for Decoration Day of Huston, at Saltillo. They fit and please.

Miss Myrtle Stouteagle, of East Water street, is spending a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Warth, in the Cove.

Last Saturday, R. S. Wible sold his house and two lots in the Magsam Extension to S. K. Pittman, of this place.

The annual Memorial Sermon will be preached in the M. E. church in this place next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. J. V. Adams.

Salt, 60c. a sack; 16 lbs. Gran. Sugar $1.00; 7 lbs. Prunes 25c.; 4 Cans Corn 25c.; 8 lbs. Rice 25c., at the store of Huston, the bargain man at Saltillo.

Rev. A. G. B. Powers, of Needmore, will conduct song service at Bedford Chapel M. E. church, near Sideling Hill postoffice, Sunday night, May 25th, at 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

John G. Smith, a Cumberland Valley railroad passenger brake man, who was asleep two miles away from the explosion and railroad wreck near Harrisburg, was thrown out of bed by the shock.

A frost here on last Saturday night did a good deal of mischief to early garden vegetables. What was peculiar, was the fact that in some gardens beans, tomatoes, and corn were entirely destroyed while in adjoining lots, not a thing was injured.

Mrs. Frank Little, of Hancock, who had gone to Baltimore for treatment a few days before, died in that city on Wednesday of last week. The remains of the deceased were brought to Hancock and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Little was a Miss English before marriage, and is survived by her husband and seven children.

"I THANK THE LORD"
cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at Trout's drug store; 25c.

WEST DUBLIN.

Ella Lake, who is employed in McConnellsburg at the Fulton House, spent Sunday at the home of her father, Jonas Lake.

D. T. Humbert, of Thompson township, candidate for associate judge, was in this vicinity last Friday. We think he would be all right.

John Mumma lost a cow and a horse by death not long ago.

Roy Cromwell, near Maddensville, spent Sunday, in this vicinity.

Ada Reeder spent Sunday at Hustontown.

M. L. Ludwig, and niece, Sarah Clevenger, spent Sunday with relatives in Trough Creek Valley, Huntington county.

HOT WEATHER PILES

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Desirable Real Estate at Public Sale.

The undersigned, agent for the owner, will sell at private sale the following desirable real estate, situate in Tod township, Fulton county, Penna., 1 1/2 mile north of McConnellsburg, adjoining lands of Fred Gress, Abram Pittman, Shaffer's Heirs, George Brant, and others, containing Twenty Acres, all under fence, and in good state of cultivation. The improvements are a good Two-Story Log House, and Bank Barn, together with necessary outbuildings. There is also on the premises A Fine Orchard of All Kinds of Fruit, and a spring of Never Failing Water Near the House. This is an attractive opportunity for any one wanting a small farm, and a desirable country home, the price is very reasonable, and the terms easy. For further particulars, call on or address JOHN SHAFER, McConnellsburg, Pa. 5-17-15.

TIME TRIED AND MERIT PROVEN.
One Minute Cough Cures right on time when it comes to curing coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite cough syrup. Sold at Trout's drug store.

LOCUST GROVE.
Quite a number of our folks attended the baptismal services in Buck Valley last Sunday.

Ira Smith was the guest of Miss Ora Layton last Saturday. Our merchant at Locust Grove is doing a good business. Our farmers will do well by calling on Howard for their twine for the coming harvest.

Our friend, W. H. Spade, of Altoona, is spending a few days with us, after which he will go to Pittsburg, where he has obtained employment at $3.50 a day of eight hours. Mr. Spade expects to make the Smoky City his future home.

A REVELATION.
If you will make inquiry it will be a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder troubles in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints. Sold by all dealers.

The New Insurance Company.
The Fulton County Mutual Fire Insurance Company now have their charter, and have received from their printers, all their supplies of policies, application blanks and other stationery, necessary for the transaction of business, and the officers are as busy as niggers placing agents and receiving applications from those who wish to go in on the ground floor.

Our neighboring counties have local companies for their home protection, and there is no reason why Fulton should be less enterprising.

Policies in the new company will go into effect on and after the first of June.

Do You Want a Suit?

One that fits you, that will look genteel, that will wear and wear, and at a price very much lower than you have been accustomed to pay? If so, you want to see Gilbert C. Mellott, one of the Normal students here, who has the agency for one of the largest tailoring establishments in the United States. Mr. Mellott will show you samples, take your measure just as well as any tailor, and in your order, and he guarantees the suit to be all right or you need not take it. At least, it will not cost you anything to see him and talk the matter over. His prices are surprisingly low. Let him know and he will call to see you. GILBERT C. MELLOTT, McConnellsburg, Pa.
