GREAT FINANCIER DEAD

Alphonse De Rothschild Also a Philanthropist.

FAMOUS FOR HIS MANY CHARITIES.

Leading Spirit of the Bankers Rothschild in Their Relations With Governments of Europe-Financed the Indemnity Which France Paid Germany After the Franco-Prussian War.

Paris (By Cable),-Baron Alphonso de Rothschild, head of the French branch of the banking house bearing the name of Rothschild and governor of the Bank of France, died at 4.30 A. M. of acute bronchitis, aggravated by gout.

The eminent financier had been sink ing slowly for many days, but there was no apprehension that his death was imminent. He first took to his bed two weeks ago. Several rallies gave promise of his recovery. Two days ago the Baron began to fail rapidly, and his condition assumed a disquieting form. Although he kept up an animated conversation with members of his family and the old servants, the patient became very weak, and entered upon a comatose state in which he died peacefully. The announcement of the Baron's death caused widespread regret, for, besides his position in the financial world, Baron, Alphonse was known for his lavish charities, one of the latest being the gift of $2,000,000 for the erection of workingmen's homes.

height at Chinyanpao, to miles north of Wesynanpaomen, but were repulsed.

On the morning of May 22 a battalion of Russian infantry and three troops of cavalry advanced along the Kirin-Tao Lu roads towards Chienchentzu, and one company of infantry gained the western height near the village, but were repulsed. The Russian cavalry on the right bank of the Liao River commenced a retreat on the morning of May 22, and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon the enemy had reached a point south of Talun, which lies 17 miles west of Fakumen. "With the exception of small collisions, there is otherwise no change in the situation."

St. Petersburg (By Cable).—General Linevitch under date of May 23 reports that a Russian detachment successfully attacked the Japanese trenches on the heights north of the station of Changtufu May 21, forcing the Japanese to evacuate their trenches. The authorities here have no confirmation of the report telegraphed from Tokio to the London Daily Telegraph to the effect that the Japanese have cut the railroad to Vladivostok and isolated that fortress. The director of tele-graphs informed the Associated Press today that there are two lines to Vladivostok, one direct by way of Khaba-rov-k, Siberia, and the other via Harbin. The former is working and no interruption of the latter had been report-ed from Harbin, whence messages are constantly arriving. Inquiries on the subject have been dispatched to Harbin. Later in the day replies were received from Harbin saying that both the rail-road and the telegraph lines to Vladi-
