AUGUST SIXTEENTH.

The Date Fixed for Democratic State Convention. May Place Stewart on the Ticket.

The Democratic state committee met at Harrisburg on Wednesday afternoon of last week and decided to reconvene the May state convention in Harrisburg on August 16, for the nomination of a candidate for justice of the Supreme court.

State Chairman J. K. P. Hall was in charge of the proceedings. Efforts will be made by Guffey and Hall to induce independent Republicans and the City party to endorse William H. Berry, Chester, the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, in return for the Democratic endorsement of Justice John Stewart, of Chambersburg, the Republican candidate for Supreme Court judge. Should these parties endorse Berry, the Democrats will put Stewart's name on their ticket; otherwise they will name a candidate against him.

Fusion on Supreme Court judge is favored by a great majority of the members of the committee who were there, only on the ground that the independents and City party people accept Berry as their candidate. Berry attended the meeting of the committee and he seems to be imbued with the idea that he can be elected if he can poll the independent vote in addition to his regular party vote.

As to his becoming the nominee of the Prohibition party, he said several members of the Prohibition state committee had written him asking whether he would accept the nomination of that party. He replied that he could see no reason why he should not, provided the Prohibition platform did not conflict with the Democratic declarations. Many prominent Democrats are afraid if Berry goes on the Prohibition ticket it will do him more harm than good.

The attendance was small.—Should the State convention decide to nominate a Democrat for judge, it is probable that Judge Grant Herring, Bloomsburg, will be named. While the sentiment in committee favored the nomination of Justice Stewart, as indicated by the discussion on the resolution fixing the time for holding the State convention, no formal action was taken on this question. Bernard J. Clark, Blair county, offered a motion that it be the sense of the committee that the convention endorse Stewart, but the motion was dropped. The suggestion, however, was greeted with prolonged applause.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

ARCANUM RATE FIGHT.

Indications That Supreme Council Will Agree to Compromise.

New York, July 3.—It is expected now, the American says, that the supreme council of the Royal Arcanum will compromise in the matter of the advance in assessments against which councils throughout the entire country have been waging war for the last three weeks. It is asserted by prominent members of the Royal Arcanum club that assurances have been received from the executive committee in Boston that the protests of the seventy-two Brooklyn councils presented in a conference in the Aurora Grata cathedral would be given careful consideration, and that everything would be done to bring about a satisfactory adjustment of the trouble.

Thirteen councils in New Jersey, Jersey City and vicinity met in Columbia hall, Greenville, and decided to follow the action of the New York and Brooklyn councils in sending delegations to the supreme council and to request the grand council of the state to exert its influence with the executive committee to prevail on the supreme council to suspend the enforcement of the new rates until such time as the question can be thoroughly elucidated. New York state will be strengthened in the fight by the support of the councils of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Illinois, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Maryland and Rhode Island. Thus there are seven grand jurisdictions already allied for a reconstruction of the assessment tables.

Sickening Shivering Fits of ague and malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of special benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effect. E. S. Munday of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Trout's drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."

DRINKS OF THE NATIONS.

Britain Leads in Tea. America in Coffee, Germany in Beer.

The United States drank 964,000,000 pounds of coffee in 1904. Nearest to this quantity out of ten other nations came Germany, with 397,000,000 pounds. France used but 168,000,000. Great Britain was so busy leading the world in tea-drinking—she used up 256,000,000 pounds of leaves to Russia's 127,300,000 and our own 109,000,000—that she consumed only 29,500,000 pounds of coffee. Chicory—that is another story.

In beer-drinking Germany led the way with 1,783,000,000 gallons. Great Britain was second, with 1,501,000,000 gallons. The United States, with 1,404,000,000 gallons, was a promising third—promising because back in 1900 our thirst for malt liquors was satisfied with 1,198,602,104 gallons.

Russia and Germany both drank more whisky than we in 1904—the figures for the three countries are, in gallons, 174,000,000, 124,300,000 and 121,000,000. We drank in 1900 about 103,330,000 gallons of whisky and brandy. France was the 1904 leader in wine, using 1,343,000,000 gallons, while we were a bad seventh, with 43,300,000 gallons. Still, we advance. In 1900 our sufficiency in wine was reached at 23,425,000 gallons.

The per capita figures, says the New York World, make different ratings. Holding our own in the quantity of coffee drank "per head," we became insignificant in tea, were fourth in distilled liquors and likewise in beer, and eighth in wine.

Mrs. Maria C. Mann, of Salvia, was called to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Vernon Skipper, of Tyrone, last week on account of the dangerous illness of her grand-son, Norman Skipper.

There will be a festival held in the grove between Shade Truax's and Squire Daniel Covatt's on Timber Ridge, on July 31st, for the benefit of Adam Deshong, who is paralyzed, and his blind sister. All are invited to come and bring something to help the aged couple.

CHINESE THRIFT.

Celestial Empire Poor Field for Accident Insurance.

"China would be a poor field for accident insurance companies," said a man in the tea trade. The inhabitants would be only too glad to get hurt in order to collect their insurance.

"Up the river from Hong Kong there's a little settlement of Englishmen. Just across the river is a graveyard, inhabited by a few scrub birds of the snipe family. They are very poor shooting, but your briton must have sport of some kind, and shooting these birds is the only sport in sight."

"One day an Englishman let drive at a snipe and hit a Chinaman who had just bobbed out from behind a tombstone. The charge of shot struck the coolie in his wrist, putting his hand out of business."

"Of course, the Chinaman made a roar. The Briton, wanting to do the square thing offered to pay the damage. The coolie demanded $10. The Englishman generously made it $15."

"There was never any good hunting in the graveyard after that. Whenever an Englishman was seen approaching, a Chinaman hid behind every gravestone. "With marvelous cleverness, they'd manage to get in range just when the Briton fired. If one of them had the luck to get two or three birdshot in his system, he would come out, roar, and collect."

"Of course, this drove away the snipe; but the coolies took to catching the birds, tying them by the leg to gravestones and hiding themselves in holes from which they could rise and get shot at the proper moment. The Englishmen had to stop hunting. It was too expensive."

"One of the pleasant and refined Chinese tortures is crushing the ankle. There are coolies in Shanghai who keep a standing offering to submit to this torture for the benefit of tourists at a rate of $5."

"I know of several cases where this offer has been accepted.—The coolies submitted without a howl and smiled when he collected the money."—New York Sun.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs or colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntly, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Trout's drug store. Trial bottle free.

Prolific Families.

Henry Sweifort died a few days ago at Keefe's church, Montgomery county, aged 96 years, and when an inventory of the old man's family was made so that the funeral arrangements could be completed, it was found that he had 28 children, 52 grand-children, 55 great-grand children, and one great-great-grand-child.

Mrs. William Sedel, a neighbor of Mr. Sweifort, celebrated her 80th birthday last week, and she gathered around her on that occasion 12 children, 22 grand-children and 46 great-grandchildren.

President Roosevelt should be well satisfied with the progress made by these worthy Montgomery county people, who believe in a liberal interpretation of the Divine injunction to "multiply and replenish the earth."

There is a little woman over on the northern edge of the Chester Valley, who is the mother of 21 children, but they are not given to marrying like the offspring of the Montgomery county patriarch so she is somewhat deficient in grand and great-grandchildren. But, she too has done well and deserves commendation.

New Tenant Law.

An important measure which affects the relation between landlords and tenants, recently became a law in this State. It provides that where a tenant shall hold possession of real estate within this commonwealth, either by license or lease, oral or written, for any time less than one year, or by the month, for an indefinite time, and the immediate landlord of such real estate shall desire to regain possession thereof from such tenant or occupant, he shall serve upon the tenant or adult member of his family a notice in writing demanding that he requires such tenant or occupant to deliver to him the possession of the premises so held within thirty days from the day of service thereof, provided that this act shall not be construed as authorizing the dispossession of a tenant, before the expiration of his or her lease or license.

"There was a danky in Southern Tennessee named Eph. Friday, who died a short time ago. Eph. was neither a member of the church nor of a lodge and thus had no one to deliver an address or a prayer at his burial. At last an old uncle consented to say a few remarks for the departed soul. As the coffin was being lowered into the grave the old uncle said to the assembled mourners: "Eph. Friday, we trusts you hab gone to de place whar we aspects you ain't."
