GREATLY IN DEMAND.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver trouble. Try them. At Trout's drug store, 25c., guaranteed.

Morning Fire.

The alarm of fire was sounded about seven o'clock this morning, and it was soon discovered that George B. Mellott's large new stable was burning. In a few minutes the nose was attached to the plug at Clevenger's corner, and a stream turned on which soon checked the fire and saved the surrounding property. The stable is used by Alex Patterson for a livery, and how the fire got started is not known. The loss on the stable is covered by insurance. Mr. Patterson's loss is confined to about two tons of hay.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all dealers.

Mrs. N. H. Peck Dead.

A telegram Tuesday evening brought the sad intelligence that Mollie, wife of Nathaniel H. Peck died at their home at Ambridge, a town on the Ohio river sixteen miles below Pittsburg, at five o'clock that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck were formerly residents of Hartford City, Ind., but came to Pennsylvania several years ago on account of the impaired condition of Mrs. Peck's health.

The immediate cause of her death was paralysis, a stroke of which she suffered Tuesday morning. Her maiden name was Stahl and she was aged about 62 years.

Her remains were taken to Hartford City, Ind., on Wednesday for interment. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Harry and Walter.

Their many Fulton county friends extend sympathy in this hour of sore bereavement.

Summer Footwear.

This has been a season of Low Shoes. Their use has been more general than for several years and why shouldn't the Oxford be popular? It has all the style and wear of the regular high cut shoes and is so cool and comfortable that it is really the only shoe to wear during the warm summer days.

We have them in all the popular shapes and shades including tans, patent leather, and vic's both button and lace. Price for ladies Oxfords ranging from $1.00, $1.25, to $2.00 per pair.

Men's Oxfords $1.50 to $2.75 in tan, vic, and patent leather. Oxfords for the little chaps as low as 58 cents.

Quality considered we will put our prices on shoes side by side with any shoe dealer in the county and wager that they are lower for our motto is "Quality before all else."
