Bellefonte Watchman.—Port Matilda can boast of perhaps the most remarkable man in the county in the person of William Lewis, who next January will be 91 years old. Notwithstanding his age he shoulders an axe, with dinner bucket in hand walks two miles to the mountain, cuts and peels one cord of paper wood every day for which he receives $2 a cord and walks two miles back to his home in the evening. This he has done all summer and is doing now, hot as the weather is and doesn't consider it anything remarkable either.

Look Out for Them.

A new scheme to defraud has been worked with some success in some sections of the Schuylkill Valley, and on Wednesday local merchants of Pottsville were approached by a man who said he was getting up a petition to the Post Office Department for the purpose of having letter postage reduced from two cents to one cent. He said it was necessary for the petitioners to pay an entrance fee of $5 before they could sign the petition, and he obtained several $5 bills from credulous merchants.

A slick swindler is operating in some sections of the State with a very smooth scheme. He calls at houses and presents bogus telegrams on which he asks the victims to pay all alleged charges. He is described as being about 5 feet, 7 inches in height with dark complexion wearing dark clothing and has a rough beard of several day's growth. He vanishes quickly from one locality to another. Just how or where he obtains the telegraph blanks officers who have been trying to capture him are unable to ascertain.

Midsummer Neckwear

Our Neckwear supremacy is very pronounced. No matter how it is done, the fact remains that no sooner do any particular shapes or styles become popular than they are shown here, and the best part of it all is that they are always shown at lower prices than you'll find elsewhere.

All the pretty and desirable conceits in Men's and Women's Neckwear are shown here in lavish abundance.

COLLARS AND CUFFS

Our Collars and Cuffs stand very high in the estimation of those who are acquainted with this department.

If you've ever bought this line here, you won't have to say anything to keep your trade—the goods and prices will do that for us.

But we are aiming at the fellow who has been buying branded Collars and Cuffs and paying about 20 per cent. more than he would have to pay US for goods of exactly the same material, exactly the same shapes, exactly the same in every way except the price.

There's an extra profit that is yours as soon as you commence to buy here. Our line of waterproof and linen collars and cuffs is larger than ever before—our prices far lower than others, ask for the same goods.
