Ed Hassler, of Fort Loudon, is in the county jail at Chambersburg, having been taken there by Constable Maxheimer after being given a hearing by Justice of the Peace C. C. Shultz, St. Thomas. The charges against him and of which he was summarily convicted were disorderly conduct and uttering 53 profane oaths. He was given the choice of paying $35.51 fine or going to jail. He chose the latter.

While digging a mess of potatoes in his lot in this place the other day for dinner, Mr. L. A. Youse brought to the surface a bureau key that had been lost for a long time. The young potato had found the key down in its hill, and to make sure of landing it to the owner, ran its little arm through the key, and as the potato grew, it became firmly attached. The potato and key are quite a curiosity.

Base Ball Game.

For a little practice and fun the town boys and the Cove boys gathered up a team and went out to Dan Trout's meadow last Saturday for a game.

The Cove boys had not been playing, and while they made it interesting for the town laddies, the score was slightly against them when they quit.

We understand that they are going to have it over to-morrow, and then there may be another story to tell. The line up was as follows:

Wagner, R.	p	Kendall,
Shimer,	c	Smith,
Suders,	ss	Deaver,
