AT ELLMAKER'S CAMP.

Fourth Annual Reunion Picnic Held Last Saturday. Kindly Greetings and Good Cheer.

DAY OF DELIGHTFUL ENJOYMENT.

The fourth annual Reumon Picme at Ellmaker's camp, near Mc-Ilvaines was held last Saturday. No set program had been arranged. Kindly greetings and good cheer prevailed. The day being extremely warm, the pure, cool, resinous atmosphere of the mountain was very exhilarating, and it was an ideal outing.

"There is a sweetness in the mountain air. That bloated case can never share."

Suffice it to say the ladies had such an abundance of substantials and delicacies in their well filled there remained enough in the baskets to make the evening luncheon equally ample and satisfying.

guest of honor-has a copy of emphatic, and also pathetic, life was held in high esteem. A ings, nee Anderson," a native of beautiful tribute paid to Rev. sel was often sought by men even Donegal township, Lancaster Francis E. Clark, D. D., L. L. D., older than himself. He was a concounty, Pa., published in 1800, President United Society of sistent member of the Reformed which also contains a descriptive Christian Endeavors. Rev. Franchurch and was laid to rest in account of a tour which the au- cis Clark was lying very ill at his Union cemetery on Friday, the thoress made from her native summer home trying to battle funeral being attended by a large home to the, then great West- with one of the greatest disap- concourse of his old friends and Washington county, Pa. Through pointments of his life-his ab neighbors. the courtesy of Mrs. J. Gilmore sence from this twenty-second Stailey, an extract of the same Convention, when by a full vote was read. The extract of Mrs. cast by every delegate in the Hastings duary relating to the house, greetings were sent to mountain scenery in the vicinity him, the founder of Christian En-lodged at foot of Rays Hill."-[now McIlvaines]. "This neighmuse breaks forth in the following verse.

"Great Nature, scoring every polished grace, In awful terror decks her frowning face, sumes the ancient sceptre of her throne, Bids art retire, and reigns supre

In the afternoon Thos. F. Sloan, Esq. made a neat little speech in which he said-"This is the third time I have had the pleasure of participating in these reunions. I have enjoyed myself very much and I thank you all for contributing to my enjoyment."

Mr. J. Watson Ellmaker also made a brief speech, saving. "I feel greatly honored by you in coming, some of you so far, to extend to me in this solitary place, your kindly greetings, and tokens of friendship."

Regrets were sent by Mr. and Mr. Thos. H. Weaverling, of Rainsburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Barkman, of Clearville, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jackson, of Akersville, and Lottie McIlvaine, who has gone to the Roaring Springs Sanitarium for treatment for rheumatism.

During the day the vocal band interpersed the social chats with music. In every respect the picnic was a success. Besides the guest of honor J. Watson Elimaker, of Lancaster City, Pa., there were present, Benjamin Hanks and wife, Everett, Pa.; J. Gilmore Stailey and wife, Rays Hill; Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Elsina, Bertha, May, Tressee, and Ethel Thomas, Erville Thomas, and Ira Salkeld of Breezewood; Margaret Filler, of Parsons, W. Va., Thos. F. Sloan of McConnellsburg; J. A. Stewart and wife of Green Hill.

J. A. S.

Change of Firm.

C. E. Goldsmitn and sister Miss Mame, on Monday purchased the store of David Malloy on North

The storm which swept over the county Sunday afternoon did a great deal of damage in and about Big Cove Tannery. Fields of corn were blown flat, a gate at the saw-mill was washed, and the roads in many places were overFORMER TEACHER OF FULTON.

to the Christian Endeavor Convention, Visited Friends in this Vicinity.

Mrs. J. Cook (nee Laura Belle Cook lives in Ottawo, Kan. She days. baskets, as to meet the wants and tells us that all the presiding of eight years of which time he was tastes of the most fastidious, and ficers of this convention unite in partnership with Mr. James justructive as well as the largest Civil War having served one year. convention the Christian Endeav No man in Ayr township where Mr. J. Wasson Ellmaker-the ors ever held. One of the most he spent the greater part of his "The Poems of Mrs. Sallie Hast- things of this convention was the man of good judgment, his counof Ellmakers camp, is as follows: deavors. Another beautiful fea-"October 15, 1800.-Yesterday ture of this convention was the we crossed Sideling Hill and chorus of twenty-five hundred voices, at night. One anthem, "The Heavens are Telling"borhood is so mountainous that Gounod, was the most beautiful to describe the terrific wildness ever heard. The Chorus had been of this country would require the in training twenty months, Coneffort of a genius infinitely super- ductor, R. A. Harris, Baltimore. ior to mine." Then this modest It was a rare treat. The song service by the children, 1500 voices, in the afternoon, was beautiful and inspiring, Musical Director, F. H. Jacobs, Brooklyn, N. Y.

COLLEDGE-McCLURE.

tions revived.

five thousand people. Live for in Ottawa, Aug. 10, by way of Baltimore, and carries with her pleasant memories of old associa-

Fulton County Boy Captures Washington County Bride.

A recent Pittsburg paper says "Yesterday at noon Clarence R. Colledge and Katherine V. Mc-Clure were married at the home of the bride, near Gastonville, Washington county, Pa. The bride is the eldest daughter of E. I. McClure and wife, the family being one of the pioneers of the county, and one of the most irfluential. The late Hop. J. F. White, so well and favorably known, was a close relative. The groom is a capable and highly respected young man, and at present is with the May Drug Co. of Pittsburg. The wedding was solemnized in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives of the wedded parties. The Rev. James E. Williams, of this city, performed the ceremony, the Rev. J. R. Bly, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Gastonville, offered prayer, Frederick Booker and Miss Flora, second daughter of the house, were near this place, this summer. attendants, and Miss Ethel, the third daughter, played the wedding march. The presents were Second street. The new firm numerous, the congratulations this week, will keep a full stock of groceries, most hearty and the repast bountobacco, cigars, &c. We wish tiful. The couple will spend a the new firm a full share of suc- few weeks visiting relatives and township on Sunday afternoon. friends in Fulton county and then will make their future home in this city."

Hon. Juo. P. Sipes has moved State Road. his law office from his residence to the room opposite the Sheriff's office in the Court House.

DAVID B. MONTGOMERY, DEAD.

Mrs. J. Cook, of Ottawa, Kan., Delegate A Highly Esteemed Citizen of Ayr Township, and a Veteran of the Civil War Laid to Rest Last Friday.

David B. Montgomery died on Booker), daughter of Mrs. James Thursday morning last at the Doran, has been a visitor at the home of Mr. Aaron Richards, one home of James Doran, of Gracey, fourth mile south of this place, for the last four weeks. Mrs. aged 79 years, 4 months and 20 was formerly a school teacher of Mr. Montgomery was one of Fulton county, and has a wide Fulton county's best citizens circle of acquaintances. She was He was born in Mid liebarg, near a delegate from Ottawa, Kan., to the State line. He came from the Christian Endeavor conven- Franklin county to this county tion at Baltimore, Md. This con- and on October 23, 1849, was joinvention opened July 5th, and end | ed in matrimony to Miss Hannah ed Monday afternoon, July 10th Glenn, of Air township. One It was the twenty-second Inter- daughter was born to them, but national Christian Endeavor Con- lived only 2 months. For 53 years vention, with headquarters at the he carried on the business of Armory building. Mrs. Cook blacksmithing at Webster Mills, saving this was one of the most Glenn. He was a veteran of the

WELLS VALLEY.

Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner and daughter are attending Crystal Springs camp.

Bessie Mulholland, of Johnstown, is the guest of Mary Mose-

Waiter McGlathery, of Altoona, spent Sunday with the family of A. F. Baker.

friends in Everett a part of last last Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. G. Baumgardner of Cottage, The writer tells us this was one brothers H. L., and W. H., last of the most devoted weeks of her Thursday and Friday. life, and when she says this, she voices the sentiment of twentyof Altoona, visited in the family ever the Christian Endeavors. of J. W. Barnett recently. Mrs. Cook leaves for her home enroute to McConnellsburg. W. H. Spangler and wife visited friends in Saxton recently. Wells base ball team played Breezewood last Saturday. Score 24-15 in favor of Breezewood,

G. W. Swope and Harvey Wishart are in poor health at this writ-

Saturday morning a gasoline Sandy Run, burned five men .-Bivens, His face, neck, and arms are burned so badly that the flesh treme suffering. peeled off. His condition is serious. The other men were burnplosion was about 500 feet from 50 feet.

WEST DUBLIN.

Quite a number of our young people attended campmeeting at Walnut Grove on Sunday.

May Mumma, of Chicago, and Viola Mumma, of Hustontown, were visiting friends in this community last week.

Quite a lot of huckleberries have been taken off the mountain

The mason work for E. H. Kirk's new house is done and the carperters will begin work there

A good shower for the growing corn was distributed over this

Mrs. E. H. Kirk and sons Howard and Paul, and her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, have joined Mr. Kirk at his farm along the take a course in a Business Col- on Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

HESSLER BARN BURNED.

Struck by Lightning Last Sunday Afternoon and Totally Destroyed. Small Insurance.

MISS FANNIE'S NARROW ESCAPE.

During the terrific electrical storm which passed over this county last Sunday afternoon, the large bank barn on the farm of the late Thomas Hessler, one mile east of Pleasant Ridge, was struck ed, together with a large quantity of grain of last year's crop and all of this year's crop. We are informed that there is an insurance of $450, which is only a wrife when compared with the heavy loss. Three horses were in the class starts with an enrollment stables at the time the barn was of thirteen members. The leadstruck, but were gotten out in time to save them.

Miss Fannie Hessler narrowly escaped a horrible death. She raninto the barn and was attempt thought had just caught. The ing the possibility of organizing a straw began to slide, and it was class. with the greatest effort that she escaped being drawn down into a pit of flames which just then burst forth with the wildest fury.

MRS. CHRISTINA DANIELS.

Died Last Sunday at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. Mann, Aged Almost 90 Years.

The spirit of Mrs. Christina Daniels, relict, of John Daniels, deceased, took its flight about 3:15 o'clock on Sunday morning, last. at the home of her eldest daughter. Mrs. Maria Mann, near Saluvia, where she had made her home for Mrs. S. P. Wishart visited the past two and one half years.

Mrs. Daniels, nee Rinard, was born in Sherman's Valley, Bedford Harvey Wishart and wife visit- county, Pa., March 15, 1816, and ed Mrs. John Fisher in Bedford, was, therefore, aged 89 years, 4 months and 28 days. Upon arriving at womanhood, she was wedded Huntingdon county, visited his to John Daniels, and at once located on the farm near Green Hill, known as the "DanielsHomestead." Margaret and Mary Defibaugh She was a model wife, mother, and urday, September 2nd. Rev. J. Aunty Puzzled, Delphia Truax Sheriff and Mrs. D. V. Sipes. of Broad Top, and Amy Edwards neighbor. She toiled early and W. Meeks, Rev. Thomas Thomp. and Mayce Clark. Address by Mrs. Minnie Younkins and late, and as long as she was able, she was a hard-working woman. Jesse Sweet and Will Hoke of The construction of the large Saxton, visited W. H. Spangler's brick house, the large bank-barn, and other improvements to the large farm, was largely due to her efforts and toil.

The deceased had for many years for 36 years, to the writer's knowledge-been a great sufferer at times, from nervous neuralgia, which grew worse and worse, and more frequent, as she advanced hored that a large number of Blanche Smith. Recitation, The to old age, and for years past, explosion in Glendale mine at nothing would give her relief but take part in the discussions on the strongest opiates. So that One is our townsman, Morris death was craved by her, and has been a happy relief from much ex-

She was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. She liv - created on Saturday by the reed, but not so severely. The ex- ed the life of a pure christian-was purt that a mad dog had bitten a faithful member of the Green the little child of Harvey McFadthe trap door, which was torn Hill Presbyterian Church for many den at the toll gate on the other from it hinges and carried about years, and died in the hope of a side of the mountain. This was glorious resurrection. She simply not the case. A mad dog was without any apparent struggle.

daughters and one son : Mrs. Ma- the toll gate for several days was ria Mann, afore-named, Miss Mary | the one that snapped at the Mc-E., of McConnellsburg, and H. S., near Harrisonville.

afternoon at 3 o'clock, her pastor, Cemetery. J. A. S.

Howard Dixon, of Pittsburg, registered at the Fulton House last Thursday.

August 19th.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

in Fulton County.

During the past week the Field Worker for the Sunday School Association, Mr. Van Deusen, has been working in the southern school picnics ever held in the part of the county. The results county, was that at Pleasant obtained thus far are very ercouraging.

On August 6th, a Normal Class was organized at Oak'ey church Wnips Cove, Pleasant Grove and with an enrollment of thirteen Oakley. A very pretty exercise members, the leaders of this by lightning and totally destroy- class are Dr. Palmer of Needmore; J. H. Covalt, Esq., and Mr. Hatfield of Covalt. A Cradie Roll to the Oakley Sunday school.

A Normal Class was organized school in. at Rehoboth on August 13th. The ers are Mr. George Fisher, Mrs. John Brewer, and Mr. J. R. Tayman. This makes the third school in the county which has taken this forward step in Suning to stop the progress of the day school work and there are flames in some straw, which she other schools which are consider-

A local Sunday School Convention has been arranged to be held at the Antioch church on Timber Ridge, Wednesday, September 6th. It is expected that Rev. A. G. B. Powers, Rev. J. W. Meeks, M. R. Shaffner, Esq., Mr. Van Deusen, and others will be present to help in this program. This convention is planned to include all the Sunday schools of Thompson township, and any others who are interested in Sunday school

The local Sunday school Convention for the Schools of Bethel township, will be held at Cedar Grove church on Tuesday; September 5th. Rev. J. W. Meeks, Rev. Thomas Thompson, D. D., M. R. Shaffner, Esq., Mr. Van Deusen, and others will be there to present different lines of Sunday school work.

The Buck Valley Sunday schools will have their Convention at the M. E. church on Satand Mr. VanDeusen will also be present at this meeting.

two sessions, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. Their purpose is to bring the advantages of the County Convention. Strait. Recitation, A Glimpse of As stated above there will be out- Life, Otis Mellott. Singing, side speakers present to help Whips Cove choir. Recitation, with the program but they will A Baggage Coach Ahead, Pearl not take up all the time. It is Hill. Recitation, Rock of Ages, those present will be ready to Su day school work and its prob. parted Mother, Essie Truax. lems.

A Mad Dog.

Considerable excitement was "fell asleep in Jesus," and died killed near Foltz on Saturday, af- Wife of Native of Fulton County Dies at ter biting several dogs there, A The deceased is survived by two dog that had been lying around Faiden child. It did not break the skin on the child. The dog The funeral was held Monday at McFadden's was shot and wounded and ran into the moun-Rev. Dr. West officiating. Inter- tain but whether it is dead or not ment at Green Hill Presbyterian is not known. The mad dog was yellow-the other one black.

> Sophia Hohman and Zoe Mason spent a day in Chambersburg re-

There will be a picnic in the Chapel Saturday evening was a Narraws near Big Cove Tannery great success. There were a Sedalia. Saturday, all day and evening, great many people out and every The Holy Communion will be with a hearty will. There was following Sunday. Mr. Ready is dragged quite a distance before administered to the members of excellent order on the grounds a brother of Prof. George W. he could get it stopped. After St. Paul's Reformed church of and when it came time to go home Ready, of Wells township, a cous-extricating himself he found be J. H. Kirk has gone to Cumber- this place this coming Sunday at the moon was still high and bright in of Mrs. Woollett, and a nepliew land, Md., where he expects to 10:30 a.m. Preparatory services making the stight an ideal one for of Aunt Rebecca Alexander of a festival.

A GRAND PICNIC.

Brief Notes of the State S. S. Work The Sunday Schools of Whips Cove, Please ant Grove and Oakley are to be Congratulated on Their Successful Programme.

One of the grandest Sunday Grove. The day was beautiful and the order was good. There were three schools presenttook place at the beginning of the day. The Whips Cove S. S. lined up some distance from the Grove with friends in this place. and the Pleasant Grove S. S.

Following is the program:

Singing. Prayer by pastor, A. G. B. Powers. Singing. Welcome address, by Oscar Garland. Recitation: The Unfinished Prayer, Irene Mellott. Recitation: God Loves Me, George Barber. Singing. Dialogue: Oscar and Blair Garland. Recitation: 1 Should Lake to Die, Earl Truax. Dialogue: The Scandal, by little folks. Recitation, A. Prayer, by Pearl Parlett. Recitation, A Little Chatter-box, Ireda Garland. Singing, Whips Cove choir. Recitation, Poor little Gem, Delphia Truax. Recitation, Is there any Room in Angel-land, Ethel Meltoo much Trouble, Oscar Hill. Prayer, Irene Mellott. Address, place. Rev. Jacob Powers. Recitation, Boys' Rights, Blair Strait. Recitation, Trouble in the Amen Corner, Mary Hess. Singing. Recitation, A model Child, Lula Clark. this place. Recitation, Mary's little Lamb, Ross Mellott.

Adjourned for dinner.

tation, Isn't God upon the Ocean, hours in town Monday. Essie Truax. Singing. Address by Hon, John P. Sipes. Dialogue, Ill., and his sister Miss Myrtle, and Scott Smith. Courtland VanDeusen. Recitation, Lattle Willie in the Apple the home of her sister, Mrs. Dan-Tree, Levi Garland. Address by tel Fix, of this place. She has Clark and Delphia Truax. Recitation, No Place for Boys, Clyde Dying Newsboy, Clyde Smith. Recitation, Thoughts on a De-Recitation, The Dying Nun, Jennie Truax. Address by Rev. A. G. B. Powers. Recitation, Curfew must not ring to-night, Delphia Truax. Singing. Address by Rev. Martin Powers. Closing address by Blair Garland.

MRS. JOHN A. READY.

Her Home in Sedalia, Mo., on the 4th last.

Mrs. Catherine Vivian Ready, wife of Mr. John A. Ready, died at their home at Sedaha, Mo., on the morning of the 4th inst.

of Elder F. N. Gaines, once pas- Mrs. B. W. Peck, Mrs. George tor of the Christian church, of B. Shoemaker and daughter Miss Sedalia, and was born near Lex- Bess, Daniel Grissinger and wife, ington, Mo., April 12, 1849. She and Rev. A. G. Wolf and family. was married to Mr. John A. The church festival at May's they resided until about seven one attacked the ice-cream, cake, sisters and four brothers. Inter- to the ground. The team was chicken, and other good things ment at Greenfield, Mo., on the moving at the time and he was

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Snapshots at Their Movements, as They Come and Go.

NAMES OF VISITORS AND VISITED

Home for a Vacation, Away for an Outling, a Trip for Business or Pleasure, You'll Find it Right Here.

Samuel Wilson, of Knobsville, was a pleasant caller at our office one day last week. W. E. Hoke and Jesse Sweet of Saxton, spent part of last week

Miss Irene Trout and brother Department has also been added marched out with their banners Morris of Philadelphia, are home and escorted the Whips Cove for their summer vacation.

George Doyle left on Monday for Gettysburg, where he will spend a week with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed, of near Mercersburg, spent Sunday with Daniel Mock, Jr's., family, of Tod township.

Mr. George Krichbaum was a McConnellsburg visitor on Thurs day. He is a resident of Lemaster, Franklin county.

Miss N. Dix Robinson, of Baltimore, came home on Saturday for a two weeks stay with friends in this place. Mr. Maynard Sipes, a hustling young salesman of the Smoky City, is visiting at the home of his lott. Recitation, In a House of parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Sipes. Mr. Arthur Barton, a rising

Recitation, Papa's Letter, Jennie young business man of Birming-Truax. Singing, Oakley choir, ham, Ala., is visiting his brother Recitation, 'The Dying Child's Superintendent Barton, of this Miss Hazel M. Kirk, of Guilford Springs, Franklin county, > daughter of A. A. Kirk, is the guest of Miss Lizzie Nelson, of Miss Stella Bard, an efficient sten ographer and typewriter, of Elkins, W. Va., accompanied by Recitation, Pearl Barton. Reci. her sister Miss Ida, spent a few Mr. Staley Sipes of Mt. Carroll,

The Weather, by Francis Barber of Newcastle, Pa., are visiting in Dialogue, the home of their parents, Exsons, of Pittsburg, are visiting at

These conventions will have Rev. Jesse Coffman. Song, There also visited us in McConnellsis no Room for the King, Maude burg. We are all glad to see her. George Kirk and his brother Lem, of Bethel township, were in town a day last week. Coming down the mountain this side of Souders' the yoke strap broke, and a smash-up was narrowly

> Rev. and Mrs. Reed and three children are the guests of Mrs. Reed's father, Rev. Grove of this place. Mr. Reed is a missionary of the U. P. church and is here on his vacation after an absence of over seven years. He is stationed in Egypt.

> Mrs. E. A. Largent, of this place, left last Friday morning for Shelby, Ohio., where she expects to spend three or four weeks with her brother, Mr. John R. W. Bergstresser. She spent from Friday evening until Monday morning with friends at Mount Union.

The following persons left for Atlantic City last Thursday: Miss Katharine Cook, Mrs. S. M. Cook, Miss Gertrude Hoke, J. K. Mrs. Ready was the daughter Johnston and wife, Editor and

Mr. Chas. Tritle, of this place, Ready, October 14, 1868. After made a narrow escape from serliving one year in Sedalia, they lous injury on Friday. While moved to Greenfield, Mo., where crossing the Ridge with a load of logs, in getting from the wagon years ago, when they returned to to the road his foot caught in an iron staple in the wagon ladders Mrs. Ready has living three causing him to fall head foremest had a badly apreised ankley promises to give him countd