By far the heaviest storm of the summer visited this place about 2 o'clock p. m., on Sunday. The flashes of lightning were vivid and the peals of thunder terrific. Mr. T. F. Sloan, the manager of the telegraph office says it was the worst he has ever seen. A number of telegraph poles near town were injured and corn knocked down and badly damaged in many places. Considerable hail fell.

A subscriber in the lower end of the county writes that he has been a reader of the News since its first issue. He says: "I have found it to be a clean, reliable newspaper with all the latest news, unbiased by 'graft' or 'machine politics.' Just the kind of a local newspaper now needed. Let the city newspapers fight out their 'boodle' and theft charges against the 'gang' and let us all vote the way we think is best for the interests of our county, state and nation."

For sunburn, tetter and all skin and scalp diseases, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. It is a certain cure for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. A Brave Girl.

While out for huckleberries a few days ago, Miss Elsie Thomas, of McIlvanes, killed a rattlesnake which had 11 rattles and a button, and this, according to the rules of old hunters, would indicate that the reptile was 15 years old. When Miss Thomas attempted to kill it, the snake put up a stiff fight, and it took a whole lot of courage for her to win out. The lady in question is not one of those who faint at the sight of a mouse, or the peeks of old Sidling Hill would yet be reverberating with the screams of Miss Thomas and his snakeship would be sliding around with a chip on his shoulder for another victim.

AGONIZING BURNS
