It has been quite a while since "your scribe" furnished any through the green cucumber, the green corn, and the green apple, season, which, with the following a correspondent out of business Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo. -giving him, as it were, his long sought-for vacation in the bushes while ye editors are wallowing in the sands on the beach of the roaring Atlantic. Many items of interest have gone by, and we find only a few that are not tainted with age. Here they are :

Our village blacksmith, George Shafer, had the misfortune a couple of weeks ago to get his hand too near a buzz saw, which led him to conclude that it would be a good time to take a vacation .and daughter Edith made a visit among friends in Mount Union. Shirleysburg, and Shade Gap, arriving home last Sunday. Miss Verna, who has been in Mount Union since last April, is now home.

John Miller, who had been at Boston and New York during the summer, is now home.

"Wasting Away." Just to show what a few earnest women can do, I want to tell you that last spring the ladies in the vicinity of Wells Valley M. E. church and Emid, organized a Ladies' Aid Society, their object being to raise money for church purposes. They started by having apron auctions, sunbonnet sogials, etc. Later they hit upon a quilt-patch arrangement. Twenty-five patches were distributed among the members, and names to be worked on the patches in silk at ten cents a name were soheited. Upon the return of the place. The boy is living on nothers. patches it was found that they averaged three dollars each, and when the patches were joined and the quilt finished they were offered ten dollars for the quilt. This scheme brought them enough money to buy a new Estey organ for the church and leave a nice balance in the trenswy. These people are to be com-
