Miss Lillian Fleming, of Clear Ridge, and her cousin, Miss Anna Gordon, of Martinsburg, W. Va., favored the News office with their presence a few minutes while in town last Saturday. Miss Anna and her brother John had been visiting Miss Lillian, and on Saturday the young ladies brought John to town that he might take the hack to return to his home at Martinsburg.

Here is a story they are telling on a youngster who was watching his mother brush her hair. He asked: "Mamma, why does your hair snap so?" "Because there is so much electricity in it," she replied. The young hopeful sat looking at her for a few moments very thoughtfully and then he could contain himself no longer and burst out with, "What a queer family we must be! You have electricity in your hair and grandma has gas in her stomach."

The Eclipse.

The eclipse of the sun came off on schedule time this morning and was witnessed by many of our people. When the sun peeped over the mountain at 6:10, he looked like he had been out with the boys last night, for he was wearing a large black patch over his right eye, and looked generally used up. This patch enlarged until about 6:30, when about three-fourths of his face was hidden.—Astronomers say that it will probably be thousands of years before another eclipse occurs which shall take exactly the same route and obscure the same territory as this one. Expeditions were sent to Labrador, Manitoba, Spain, Algiers, and Tripoli to study the coronas or crown of sun. The one for Algeria sailed on the steamer Dixie from Gibraltar on the 18th of July, and is in charge of Prof. Hussey and Prof. Robert H. West, of Beirut College, Syria, son of Rev. W. A. West, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place.

A Statement.

There seems to be an effort on the part of a few people who do not feel kindly toward the Fulton County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, to create the impression that the company did not do the fair thing with Mr. Keefe, who suffered a loss in Ayr township. Here are the facts in the case: Mr. Keefe was not a member of the Fulton County Mutual, never filled or caused to be filled, any application, never had a policy from the company, and never paid one cent into the company. This statement is made to correct the report that he had paid a dollar as a policy fee. The Fulton County Mutual has already passed the Three Hundred Thousand Mark, and will pay every dollar of liability that is fair and square.

A POLICYHOLDER.

A Malicious Act.

Some malicious scoundrel fired into a herd of W. R. Keith's cattle in Wells Valley, on the 18th inst., which put an eye out of one of the cows and seriously injured another. There were five cattle that shared the eight or nine loads of shot.

One of the cattle, a fine milch cow, received four loads of shot—one in her forehead, another load in each side of her neck, and another load in her shoulder. Another, a fine heifer, received three loads of shot in the side of her neck and head and shoulders. While a third one, a fine milch cow, received one load in her neck, the other two received a few scattering shots.

In this same herd of cattle were two milch cows belonging to their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lockard, given her by her husband for the support of her two children, which escaped uninjured.

The cattle were pasturing a short distance from his home and were driven into a very bushy ravine, sheltered by a high cliff of rocks, about a mile from his home, so that the report of the gun could not be heard at his home.

The evidence is conclusive and the guilty person can be found.

A New Building.

Guy Weaver, of Saltillo, Huntingdon county, Pa., and Miss Alice Grissing, of New Grenada, Fulton county. After the ceremony had been completed, the bride and groom took the first train out for Philadelphia, Atlantic City, and New York. The groom is one of Saltillo's enterprising merchants, and an up-to-date fellow, and the bride is New Grenada's accomplished music teacher, and a cultured lady. They have the hearty congratulations of their numerous friends. A reception will be given the happy couple at the home of F. G.
