Family Reunion.

At the home of Thos. B. Stevens and wife, in East Extension on Tuesday, August 29, 1905, gathered the children and their families, consisting of Thos. W. Raubock, wife and daughter, Zola, of Erie, Pa.; Nathan H. Stevens, wife and sons, Ralph, Drew and Horner, of Taylor township, this county; Benjamin E. and Miss Hester O., at home. After having spent the day very pleasantly, Nathan and family returned to their home, where they are engaged in farming. Mr. Raubock and family returned to their home Friday, where Mr. Raubock is engaged with the Prudential Life Insurance Co., of America. Benjamin E. is engaged in the furniture business in this place, and Miss Hester taking care of the home. It is the writer's wish that the participants may enjoy many such occasions before the family chain is broken.

In extinguishing the flames he was badly burned about the hands and feet.

Deer Will Be Plenty.

Deer is more plentiful in Pennsylvania than they have been for many years, according to the reports to the state game commission. Some of the game wardens report deer in localities where there has been none of those animals for many years. The reports also indicate a large abundance of wild turkeys and pheasants and an unusually small quantity of quail.

INCREDIBLE BRUTALITY.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he said "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.
