If you do not get to town during court week, perhaps you could send us a little money along with one of your neighbors. It would be a little safer, you know, than sending it by mail. We always need a little money about court time. You can tell how you stand by looking at the label on your paper. Of course, if you are paid ahead, don't bother any further about it.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is certainly a wonderful remedy for indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomachs. They say it never fails to cure and that it strengthens the digestive organs and makes the stomach and breath as sweet as a rose. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Frederick Gress of Tod, was an early Monday morning caller. In speaking of the summer crops he says there has been an unusually fine yield of buckwheat among the farmers over the Ridge. A. J. Sipes, had over 200 bushels; George Brant, 150; Will Summers 115; A. J. Pittman, 90, and J. K. Tritle, 40. The weather was favorable for gathering the crop and the quality of the grain is unusually good this year. There is a heavy crop all over the county.

INCREDIBLE BRUTALITY.
It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he said "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.

Hustontown Sunday School Convention.
The Hustontown Convention was held Tuesday afternoon and evening, Sept. 12th. The services opened with an anthem by the choir. Rev. J. V. Adams offered prayer, and an address of welcome by Rev. B. A. Salter followed. After another selection of music, Elliott H. Kirk gave a talk on "Some Practical Points in S. S. Work."

Several questions were then discussed in open Parliament. Hon. S. P. Wishart, Judge Buckley, Mr. Lohr, M. R. Shaffner, Esq., Wm. McClain, and others participated. Mr. Van Deusen spoke on Advanced Methods in Sunday School Work, and the meeting was adjourned until evening.

The evening session began with an anthem by the choir. Devotional exercises were led by Rev. S. J. Pittenger. Elliott Kirk, Esq., delivered an address on the Home Department, showing that it is a practical method of recruiting the open Sunday school.

The discussion in open parliament were led by Hon. S. P. Wishart, M. R. Shaffner, Esq., Judge Buckley, Messrs. Hertzler, Strat, Lohr, Kirk, McClain, Clevenger, Witter, and Rev. J. V. Adams.

Courtland Van Deusen then spoke on the Forward Movements, and this was followed by an address of great interest by Hon. S. P. Wishart. After outlining the remarkable progress of the S. S. movement within the last few years, the speaker showed that the signs of the times pointed to even a greater advancement along the lines of S. S. work in the future.

A permanent organization for Taylor township was effected and following are the officers chosen for the ensuing year: President, Elliott Kirk; vice president, Samuel Gracey; secretary, Miss Nell Kirk; Treasurer, Josiah Witter.

Birthday Surprise.
The home of Frederick Gress was the scene of a very pleasant social occasion last Saturday, and it was brought about in a successful effort to give Mr. Gress a pleasant reminder that he, that day, had reached the age of sixty-two years.

While the family, of course, knew all about it, they allowed Mr. Gress to go out to his work that morning as usual, and when he found out that something was doing at the house he went in, only to find a big lot of his neighbors there to pull his ears. Those present were Samuel F. Gress and children, Rosalie and Valera, of Fairview, Md.; John W. Laubs, wife, and little daughter, Florence, of Greencastle, Pa.; Harry C. Gress, wife and daughter, Jesse, of McConnellsburg; Frank Gress, wife and children, Lester and Della, of the Cove; Katie and Elmer at home; Miss Ida M. Hann and Mrs. Wm. Batdorf and grand daughter Mary.
The day was spent very pleasantly and Mr. Gress received a nice lot of gifts.

ROUSS RACKET STORE.

Hunting season will soon be here and we claim we have the greatest line of ammunition and guns in the county. We can sell you a good H. & R. or H. & A. single barrel shot gun for $3.10, and the Darius for a little more. Double barrel, $7.00 and $8.00. 3-dram shells 42; 3-dram shells—all size shot 45c. Ladin and Rand rifle powder 23c lb. Gun caps 5c a box, shot 8c lb., wads 5c a box. Then if you want a high priced gun, we can get it in about 3 days at a small profit. Last year we ordered 4 of the $25 ones but not at $25.

Ladies! Ladies! Ladies!

NOW, just a word to the ladies about underwear. We bought a case of the heaviest ladies' underwear that ever came this way at 24c each—weight 9 lbs., to the dozen.

We have also added the Radcliffe Shoe and you all undoubtedly have seen these advertised in magazines at $2.50. Now, we want to get these good shoes recommended and we are going to sell them at $2.25 and $2.35. If you want a good shoe see them.

Now comes the Tar Rope. We claim we have the best that is made. We could have bought one at 1c lb., less, but it wasn't guaranteed to be strictly sisal. If you can find anything in this rope but Sisal we will give it to you. The cheaper one is mixed with jute and Sisal, our price 7c a pound by coil.

Children's, Boys' and Men's Corduroy Pants. Children's knee pants lined, 48, 70, 75, and 80c. Boys' long lined cords $1.10, $1.05 and $1.95. Men's lined with muslin and drilling $1.25, $1.85, $1.88 and $2.38. We never had as good a line of corduroys as we have this year.

Executors.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE PERSONAL PROPERTY and REAL ESTATE.

The undersigned, executors of the last will of Conrad Glazier, Sr., late of Ayr township, deceased, will sell at the late residence of the decedent, two miles south of Webster Mills, on the following personal property and real estate to wit: 1 Wheelbarrow, 2 Sleeps of Bees, 1 Hay Fork, Rope and Pulley, and many other articles—these belong to the said estate. At the same time and place there will be sold the following, which belongs to Mrs. Barbara Glazier, namely:

7 HEAD OF CATTLE
1 of which is a good cow, and the others fine young cattle that will weigh about 600 lbs. each. 1 good family horse, 1 buggy, and 1 set of single harness.

The said executors, by virtue of authority contained in the will of the said Conrad Glazier, Sr., deceased, will immediately after the sale of the personal property, offer for sale the real estate of the said decedent, as follows:

THE MANSION FARM
situate in Ayr township, Fulton county, Pa., adjoining lands of Jos. B. Mellott, F. McNaughton Johnson, Esq., and others—containing 249 ACRES and 182 perches, more or less, of which 150 acres are cleared and in a high state of cultivation; the balance is in good timber. The improvements are a large, new, weatherboarded and other necessary outbuildings. The entire farm is well supplied with water. Running water in the barnyard, and a fine never failing spring of water near the house. There is an excellent orchard of Apples, Pears, Quinces, Plums, and other fruit.

FRAME HOUSE, LARGE BANK BARN

TRACT NO. 2. This adjoins the above described tract and contains 64 ACRES, more or less, and is principally covered with timber, mostly of the hard wood variety.

TRACT NO. 3. This tract adjoins Nos. 1 and 2 and contains 32 ACRES more or less. ALL IN TIMBER of good quality and variety. The above real estate will be sold as a whole or in separate tracts as above described as to best suit purchasers.

Sale begins at 1 o'clock, p. m.
Terms made known on day of sale.
