Parents, when your boy gets a whipping at school, don't get your back up and howl about it, but do your Christian duty by giving him one yourself. Have him to understand that he will have no protection for his bad conduct and it will make a good man of him some day. Never let your boy realize that you sympathize with him and you will have no trouble with him at school, but the moment he finds he has protection at home for devilry, then he is almost sure to provoke his teacher and make trouble. Solomon said, whip the bad out of them when necessary, and they would be good boys and when they get old they would do to their own likewise.—Ex.

Letter From Noel L. Mathias.

The many friends of Noel L. Mathias, of Hustontown, who has been an inmate of the Pennsylvania State Hospital at Harrisburg during the past four years, will be glad to read the following letter.

Harrisburg, Pa., October 2, 1905.

Mr. B. W. PECK: Enclosed, you will find one dollar, for which please renew or continue my subscription to the Fulton County News for another year. I should have attended to this about two or three weeks ago as I see the date two weeks past.

I am pleased to receive the News, as it is like a letter to me, giving me information of about all which occurs in the home county and mentions many a person who is an acquaintance of mine or who has attended the same school at the same place and time when I, also attended.

I am pleased to hear of the success many of my school-mates and other or all the young folks of Fulton county are meeting with.

I sometimes feel sorry of the condition in which I am at the present time and have been for years past. I was trying to get an education, that I might amount to something in this world, but about the time that I became able to teach and earn some money that I could be of some service and start in the State Normal, I was compelled to quit study on account of my health. I thank God that I am not in a worse condition than I am; as I am able to go out with my dear companion and room-mate, L. W. Rice, of Reading, Pa., every day.

I was brought here on May 17, 1901, by Sheets and Bender of McConnellsburg.

I became acquainted with my present room mate, L. W. Rice, more than two years ago. He was afflicted in a similar way as I am. We were placed in a room together and given parole or the privilege of going out upon the lawns, walking over different parts of the farm together for exercise, which we enjoy very much. My companion has not had an attack now for more than two years.—Mine continue to come; but I hope and pray that God, "The Great Physician," will heal me and all for whom I should pray.

I with my roommate am trying to serve God, doing our best in our little room in the way of reading our Bible, offering up our prayer, and trying to do our best in studying the Sunday School lessons and doing some singing also. One thing which I as well as many others miss and long for is some chapel or some form of true christian worship, as I have not heard a sermon or anything of the kind, more than a brief Christmas entertainment, since I have been here. I, with my companion, and others, at their bedside are trying to keep our banners raised and our flags floating. May we be remembered by you and all members of your church in your prayers, and receive reward from God.

This is the Home week in Harrisburg, which I know is handsomely decorated. There certainly will be many persons, or great numbers in Harrisburg during the week, but I do not expect to see anything of the performances. What is more pleasing to me is to meet some acquaintance from "Little Old Fulton," as I have met some from there, and there are at present, working here some, who were a short time ago citizens of Fulton county. Mr. Daniel Gillis is now engaged here, running the ice plant. The time visitors are allowed in to see their friends is p. m., of Wednesdays and Saturdays, from 2 to 5 o'clock, of each week. Now Mr. Peck, if you think it worth while, any time you come to Harrisburg, please get a permission from the county official and give me a call as I will be pleased to meet you, and any other person, who will give me a call. Respectfully yours, N. L. MATHIAS.

People from the mountains report that there will be an abundance of chestnuts this year. Many have already been gathered, the recent frosts having served to ripen the nuts. As last fall the worm is getting away with many of them.

An Open Letter.

Already the leaves are falling which marks the close of summer and the approach of winter.

As early as March I commenced to prepare for it having at that time bought my rubber goods.

In May when you were trying to keep cool I was buying winter underwear and overcoats and winter suits. I didn't buy any too soon for heavy advances have been made on all such goods since that time.

Two weeks ago I visited Philadelphia Markets and since my return I have been kept busy placing on my shelves one of the best and most complete lines of dependable merchandise that it has been my lot to show. The continued increase in our sales from month to month encouraged buying an immense stock and I am now ready to supply my trade with the best to be had at prices which means saving to you.

I can, must and do sell cheaper than the man who sells on credit. When I sell you a suit, a dress, a pair of shoes I do not have to make an allowance for bad debts but can sell you at a saving bank of 10 to 20 per cent.

Call and price my goods and don't buy a thing if you think my prices aren't rock bottom.

HARRY E. HUSTON, SALTILLO, PA.
