ALLAHABAD. PLEASANT EXPERIENCE. BY MISS ALICE E. WISHART.

Since Miss Tod left us, I have been inspecting our zenanas, at the same time keeping up my usual school work and examinations. It is quite worth while, as I am finding out all the information about the pupils, their lessons and life and faith in Christ, their special need and reception of the Truth, so that each may be made a subject of prayer. I have an ambition to know just as far as possible what kind of work is being done by each individual missionary and what progress is be ing made, the hindrances and encouragements. So much money has been, and is being spent in this work, so many prayers offer ed for it, that I want you to be able to know and realize how worth while it all is. "he time was spent with Miss Lillie Roderick in visiting her Bengali pupils in thirty houses. I was much encouraged with the way the women appreciate spiritual truth, as well as their advance ment in secular studies. Five women were examined on John's Gospel, besides writing from memory the entire fourteenth chapter. Their answers showed very plainly Miss Roderick's thorough and excellent teaching, and the Spirit's work in their hearts, so much so that I was not only delighted, but surprised.-She does not spare herself in time, strength, patience, or mon ey for her pupils, and the fact that she is able to get so many of these strict purda women to attend our semi-annual gatherings in the Mission, is the best evidence of the respect and trust in which she is held by the women, but their husbands and brotners. The lessons vary according to the age and advancement of the pupils, but the method is nearly the same in every house. First, the secular lesson of reading, writing, sewing, or whatever it may be, than the Bible lesson, special memory verses, catechism, and hymn to which the whole family listen-all work stops, -and lastly a prayer. It is not easy always to get an opportunity to pray in don't ask what is good for it and a heathen house, but I found Miss get some medicine with little or order by the teacher, after which J. H.
