So sudden was the coming of the disaster and so great the confusion which attended and followed it that even the officers of the steamer themselves were unable upon the vessel's arrival here to estimate the full extent of the tragedy.

John Graham, of Milwankee, was one of the passengers washed overboard and He was traveling in the steerage. their lives are Margaret Cleary, Mary Cosgrove, Niels Ekberg and Elizabeth Mary

When the Campania reached quarantine to of the injured passengers were still in the ship's hospital, some of themseriously hurt, and a score of others were nursing minor injuries.

The Campania was plowing along under full headway last Wednesday afternoon. A heavy quartering sea was unning, but the weather conditions were far from unpleasant, and the big boat's decks were crowded with passengers. The steerage deck was covered with merrymakers, and there was nothing to indicate the approaching disaster, when suddenly the big steamer lurched to port and scooped up an enormous sea. The and scooped up an enormous sea. The wave boarded the steamer about midon the port side, and swept clear across the steerage deck, completely filling the space between that deck and the deck above, and carrying everything with it. Theft From Adams Express Company in Pittsburg. Pittsburg, (Special). - The startling discovery was made that the Adams Express Company has been victimized to the extent of $100,000, supposedly through the peculations of an employe.

The following statement of the affair was given out for publication:

"At 4.15 P. M. Monday, October 9, a bank of Pittsburg delivered to the Adams Express Company at its office at 610 Wood street, Pittsburg, a packat 610 Wood street, Pittsburg, a package of currency containing $100,000. Of this amount $20,000 was in $100 bills, $10,000 in $50 bills and the remaining $10,000 in $5, $10 and $20 bills. The $100 and $50 bills, issue of the Farmers' Deposit National Bank of Pittsburg and the Bank of Pittsburg, N. A., were in the main entirely new; some had in the main entirely new; some had been slightly used. The $5, $10 and $20 bills were old currency. The package containing this large sum of money was consigned to a bank in Cincinnati, O. "This package was received and re-teipted for by Edward George Cunliffe, who was then acting in the place of the regular money clerk, who was ill. "Cunliffe left the office at the usual time in the evening, and in the morning, when he failed to report for duty, hurried examination was made of his department and it was learned that about $1,000 of funds intrusted to his care were missing. General Agent Hiner, of the Adams Express Company, immediately called in detectives and placed the matter in their hands. Later developments brought to light the fact that in addition to $1,000 missing the bank package containing the $100,000 had not been received at the money for-warding office at Union Station, this

"Inquiries made at his residence, 314 Lucerne street, West End, Pittsburg, showed that Cunliffe arrived home at the customary time, and after changing his clothes bade his family good-by, saying to his wife that he was going out for the evening, and nothing fur-ther has been heard from him. "Cunliffe has been employed by the Adams Express Company since March 1, 1904. Previous to that time he was employed in the Pittsburg service of the American Express Company, the Electric Express Company and the United States Express Company of Hartford, Conn., and bore a good reputation. He was methodical, accurate and an excellent clerk. Mrs. Cunliffe, wife of the missing man, was visited by the detectives. She readily answered all questions concern-ing her husband. She said that he came home at the usual time. After eating his supper he prepared his toilet, and upon leaving the house he bade her good-by, as he was in the habit of doing. She then asked the detectives if anything had happened to him, and when told that her husband was not working at the Adams Express office and that a large sum of money was missing she went into hysterics, and is n a serious condition. The detectives learned nothing of importance at the nome. The authorities are of the opinion that Cunliffe left the city immediately after bidding his wife good-by.

RESCUE TWENTY FROM DEATH.

Panic at a Fire in New York Tenement Building. New York, (Special).-Cut off from all escape, 20 persons were rescued from death in a blazing tenement in Sixth street by two unknown men and three policemen, everyone of the panic-stricken tenants being saved before the arrival of the firemen.

Hearing the alarm that followed the discovery of a fire in the hallway on the second floor two laborers at work on a gas main in the street rushed into the blazing building, and, making their way to the upper floor, helped many women and children to the fire escape They were soon joined by three policemen, who stationed themselves on the escape gallaries and passed the occupants down from hand to hand until just as the fire engine arrived the last of the tenants was taken out unhurt. The upper floors of the building were completely gutted. A Roadside Mystery.

Haskell, I. T., (Special).-The bodies of Miss Margaret Lindsay, a schoolteacher, and Joseph B. Young, a barber, were found in the road, three miles north of Haskell. There were marks of violence on the bodies, and a revolver was found near the scene. The couple were last seen alive on Sunday evening, when they drove out of Haskell in a buggy.
