Spent More Than $1000.

W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years. She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1000 with out relief."

What to Teach a Girl.

Teach her that 100 cents make $1. Teach her to wear a calico dress and wear it like a queen.

Teach her to dress for health and comfort as well as for appearance.

Teach her how to darn stockings, sew on buttons and mend a glove.

Teach her to have nothing to do with intemperate or dissolute young men.

Teach her to observe the morals and habits and not money in selecting her associates.

Teach her the more she lives within her income the more she will save for a "rainy day."

Teach her to cultivate the talent she has and not waste time and money on the talent she does not possess.

Teach her to embrace every opportunity for reading and to select carefully the books that are elevating in their tone, and above all avoid trashy novels.

A Dozen Times a Night.

Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night."

Danger in Fall Colds.

Fall colds are liable to hang on all winter leaving the seeds of pneumonia, bronchitis or consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures quickly and prevents serious results.

$210 Stolen From Mrs. David Kline.

Edward Stoner, aged probably 25 years, is in jail in Chambersburg, charged with the stealing of $210 belonging to Mrs. David Kline.

Mrs. Kline, who is a widow, was living with her brother-in-law, Joseph McDonald, near Greencastle, in September last.

Constable Charles E. Miller, of Chambersburg, was engaged in the case and disguised as a tramp he secured employment on the Nicodemus farm and became intimate with Stoner.

Stoner left the McDonald farm after the robbery and worked for Edward Nicodemus on his farm along the Waynesboro-Greencastle pike at Park Hill.

The money, we understand, was not recovered. Stoner protested his innocence, and said he knew nothing of the robbery.

A certain self-important school director took it upon himself recently while visiting a school to ask a class of boys and girls some questions, and when he found they were not able to answer, he pronounced them the dullest set he had ever seen.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smilthart, of Pekin, Ill., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished.

Dr. A. C. Daniels and son, of Bedford, made his sister, Mrs. W. B. Stagers of Warfordsburg, a flying visit last Sunday and Monday, returning Tuesday.

Letter to Frank P. Lynch, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: Your business is, when a house burns down, to give the owner some money to build a new one.

We paint the one that burnt down and the new one too. What is better, we paint the houses that don't burn down.

You insure the houses that burn; we insure the houses that don't. You have the ashes and smoke; all the houses are ours.

We paint lead-and-zinc; Devoe. We sell the paint to painters; we don't paint.

Lead-and-oil is the old fashion paint. Devoe is zinc ground in with lead and linseed oil; the best paint in the world.

Mr. Aaron Higgins, of Plainfield, always used 15 gallons of mixed paint for his house.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., New York.

P. S.—F. C. Bare, Fort Littleton, sells our paint.

An Authoritative Book on Railway Rates. It is not often that the economist has an opportunity to present a book of such practical interest and timely importance as Professor Hugo R. Meyer's "Government Regulation of Railway Rates."
