You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please.—Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure indigestion and dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Sold by Stout-eagle & Bro.

About one hundred men are employed by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad near Hancock Station in raising the track, ballasting, laying new rails and ties. The station and surroundings are now lighted by electricity; which is nice for passengers that arrive or depart on the night trains. The wood platform on the opposite side of the tracks from the station will be removed and gravel or other material will be substituted. A carload of concrete blocks for the curbing are unloaded at the station.—Star

A new idea in a cough syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing pine tar, honey and other valuable remedies, it is rendered Laxative, so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, etc. A red clover blossom and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Secretary James Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, predicts lower retail prices during the coming winter season for meat, dairy products, poultry and other necessities of life. He says the relief for the household will come from the enormous yields of small grain and corn in the great territory of Illinois, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Skiles were among the town visitors Monday. Last Spring Mr. Skiles purchased part of the Theo. Sipes farm and moved onto it. This has evidently been a good season for snakes as well as pumpkins for Mr. Skiles has killed during the summer, 102 snakes, 57 of which were blacksnakes, 13 blowingadders, 23 copperheads, and nine house-snakes. The longest of the blacksnakes was seven feet six inches.

The Original Laxative Cough Syrup is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. It relieves the feverish conditions of the throat, draws out the inflammation, cures the cough and strengthens the mucous membranes of the lungs and bronchial tubes. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is a certain, safe, prompt and harmless cure for colds, croup and whooping cough. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Recent Deaths.
DANIELS.

Mrs. Andrew Daniels died at her home in Pawnee Rock, Saturday morning, September 23d, at 6 o'clock.

The deceased had lived in Pawnee Rock with her husband for the past 15 years, and leaves a host of friends as well as relatives to mourn her departure.

Mrs. Daniels' maiden name was Sarah Blankley and was born January 11, 1830, in Bedford county, Pa., and was aged 75 years, 8 months and 12 days. She married Andrew Daniels in 1850.—From this union were born 6 children—2 daughters and 4 sons.—Two sons are dead. One daughter, Mrs. John Gregory, lives in Mankato, Kan.; George Daniels, lives in Garfield, Kan.; Dr. A. C. Daniels, lives in Bedford, Pa., and her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Stagers at Warfordsburg, Pa.

Grandma Daniels was converted early in life, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, remaining a consistent member until her death. She was a good mother, a devoted wife, and a kind friend. Her life was a life of affliction, yet through all her suffering, she was resigned to the will of God. She longed for some length of time, owing to her suffering, to go to her Maker and be at rest; but always said, "God's will be done."

Her funeral was preached from Rev. 14: 13, by her pastor Rev. Oscar Huddleston, at the M. E. church of this place, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 24, 1905, and her remains were buried in the Rock cemetery.—Pawnee Rock Herald.

FEIDT.
Harry Feidt, only child of Ross and Lizzie Feidt, died October 8, 1905, aged 10 months and 25 days. Funeral was conducted by Rev. Powers, of the Christian church. Interment at Rehoboth M. E. church.

Little Harry was a bright and lovable child and the sunshine of his home. Every thing was done for him that loving hands could do to keep him here, "but God only lent him for one brief summer—"a sweet little blossom budding on earth to bloom in heaven."

M'DONALD.
David McDonald, mention of whose illness has frequently been made in this paper, died at his late home in Thompson township last Saturday evening. Funeral on Monday, services conducted by Rev. Powers, of Needmore, and interment made in the Union graveyard at Damascus church.

Mr. McDonald was a son of James McDonald by his first wife and was reared in the home of Richard Hollenshead until he reached the age of 21, when he was married to Lydia, daughter of the late Jonathan Shives.

His wife and five children survive him.

Mr. McDonald took typhoid fever several weeks ago, and about the time he had recovered sufficiently to begin to eat, he was attacked by malaria, and when he was well out of danger from the last disease, consumption set in and hastened his death. He was aged about 35 years.
