of America.
"A PROCLAMATION. "When, nearly three centuries ago, the first settlers came to the country which has now become this great republic they fronted not only hardships and privation. but terrible risk to their lives. In those grint years the custom grew of setting apart one day in each year for a specia ervice of thanksgiving to the Almighty for preserving the people through the changing seasons. The custom has now national and hallowed by immemorial usage. We live in easier and more wen who, with rugged strength, faced the rugged days, and yet the dangers to

It is emmently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for Haire, of South Dakota.

Diamonds valued at S. good, and at the same time, that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received, should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings and piedge themselves solemnly and in good faith to strive to overcome them. Dur-ing the past year we have been blessed with bountiful crops. Our business prosperity has been great. No other people has ever stood on as high a level of material well being as ours now stands. We are not threatened by foes from without. The foca from whom we should pray to be delivered are our own pasdous, appetites and follies; and again these there is always need that we should Therefore, I now set spart Thursday, November 30, as a day of thanksgiving for the past and of prayer for the future, and on that day I ask that throughout the land the people gather in their home and places of worship, and in rendering thanks muto the Most High for the manifold ldessings of the past year, conse-crate themselves to a life of cleanliness, honor and wisdom, so that this nation may do its allotted work on the earth in a manner worthy of those who founded it and those who preserved it.
