The Trespass Law.

This being the hunting season, and as the new trespass law is rather severe, we have been asked to publish an abstract of the same. It follows:

The act provides that any person trespassing upon land—no particular kind of land specifically designated—upon which the owner has prominently posted notices forbidding such trespass, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Conviction before a magistrate shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding $10 and the costs. Failure to pay the fine will result in imprisonment one day for each dollar not paid. All such cash penalties as are imposed and recovered shall be paid to the school district in which the trespass was committed.

This law effectually bars hunters from safely going into the woods and fields in pursuit of game.

All that an owner need do is to post notices "prominently." It matters not whether the land is fenced or unfenced, cultivated or a virgin forest. A hunter may unwittingly trespass upon unfenced land, entering within a few score of feet of a notice of whose existence he has no knowledge. He is just as liable to punishment as the most wilful trespasser.

A CREEPING DEATH.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at Trout's drug store.

Polly Delfosse, Ellen Rens, Antoinette Vonderbeken, Charles and Elsie Bollman, Pearl and Roy Evans, George and Laura Rightmour.

David D. Deshong, teacher.

CLEARED FOR ACTION.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At Trout's drug store, 25 cents.

FAMILY REUNION.

Children of Mrs. Maria C. Mann Visit Their Mother at the Old Home.

The home of Mrs. Maria C. Mann, of Salvia, was the scene of a very happy family gathering last week. Her son, Frank Mann, of Burlington, Colo., surprised her by appearing unannounced the first part of the week, followed by her daughters, Mrs. Vernon Skipper, of Tyrone; Mrs. M. E. Bobb, of Norristown; and her son, Lewis C. Mann, of Everett. Mr. and Mrs. Skipper and Mr. and Mrs. Bobb returned to their respective homes Saturday. Frank leaves to-day for his home in Colorado.

ROUSS RACKET STORE.

Gentlemen, if you haven't bought an overcoat this fall, and you are going to need one, we have a word to say to you. We bought more overcoats this year than we have in any two years since we are in business, and have sold more. We think we are in a position to save you money on them the same as other goods. All we ask of you is, that you come in and see our line, and if we can't save you 25 per cent. on your purchase, then don't buy. And, in suits, the same is true. We have overcoats from $2.48 to $7.00; and if the $7.00 coat is not as good as any $10.00 coat you look at, we give up. In men's suits, we have them from $2.35 to $7.75, or to 12.00 if made to order.

Don't let the Jew tell you that he has the Shippensburg 272 linen chain corduroy, unless you see for yourself. The price of this cord is $2.38. We have cheaper ones too, $1.25, $1.75 and $1.88. The $1.88 cord is a fine corduroy and lined with drilling.

Just got our last cans in for this fall. They are 50 lb cans, Japanned and a fastener on the top to hold lid on, 33c. each. Wash boiler, metallic bottom, 69 and 85c. The 85c. ones are the heaviest made.

By chance we got 3 Rolls of Potter's first quality (the heaviest made) Floor oil cloth in 4-4, 6-4 and 8-4, at 24c. yd. We will agree that there are cheaper ones, but any fair person will tell you that this is the cheapest they ever heard of, this grade selling, think of it, only 24c. yd.

Sure catch mouse traps, 2c. each, 20c. doz. Pocket dictionaries for school 12c; vest pocket, leather bound, 18c.; large size, 25c., 95c., and $1.25; testaments, 8c.; Butcher knives, 9 to 25c.; Cake protectors, 2 and 3c.; Dietet lanterns, 45, 65 and 85c.; 2-qt. granite bucket, 5c.; 3-qt. Concord bucket, 8c., 4-qt., 10c.
