Commercial Review

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Cooler weather in most secions of the country has stimulated retail lemand for seasonable merchandise, im-proving the tone of business where there had been more or less irrigularity, but reports are still somewhat mixed as to collections. Supplementary orders are ng apparel, and in many cases shipments would show still larger gains over the same time last year it transporting facil-ties were better. This car shortage is an increasingly disturbing element. There is still a very close comparison of railway earnings, which were only o per cent. larger than he October, 1904. Industrial conditions are little disturbed by labor controversies, although several tion. Thus far work is scarcely inter-rupted and more cases of advances in wages are reported.

At the South and West scarcity of labor retards operations, yet those sections are more prosperous than ever beore. Leading branches of manufactures make good progress, most mills and factories having orders for more remote delivery than is customary, and especially favorable statements are made specting lumber and flour mills. Faurns were very favorable in October, iabilities falling 36 per cent, behind last year's. For the first time in recent weeks exports from this port declined material-y in comparison with the same week of the adverse balance amounting to $4,843,103. Imports rose $1,943,025.
