Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life."

Local Institute.

The fourth educational meeting of Dublin township, was held at Chesnut's school, November 3, 1905. The meeting was called to order by the teacher Harvey Sipes, D. K. Chesnut was appointed chairman.

The subjects were thoroughly discussed by the teachers present. The institute was enlivened by a number of recitations which did much credit to the pupils and teacher.

Letter to M. R. Shaffner.

Dear Sir: Good yarn: How we got our agent at Delhi, N. Y.

Gladstone & Paine were agents for —; we mustn't tell names. We wanted 'em. Paine was painting his big Colonial house. Said it took 10 gallons of white for the trim.

We sent him 10 gallons and said: if you get it all on, no pay; if you have any left, return it and pay for the rest. Agreed.

He returned four gallons and took the agency. Four or five years ago. He knows now that his old paint was and is adulterated; that's why it took ten gallons to equal six of ours.

Go by the name; there is but one name to go by: Devco lead and zinc.

Yours truly F. W. DEVOR & Co., New York.

P. S.—F. C. Bare, Fort Littleton, sells our paint.

Local Institutes.

The second local institute of Belfast township, was held at Philip Morgret's school last Friday evening. The meeting was called to order by the teacher, Queen Lake, who elected Milton Mellott as president.

SOUTH DUBLIN.

The farmers have about finished storing an excellent crop of corn.

The lumber industry is becoming large in our section. The large sawmill plant of Kalbach & Sons has been recently placed on the Woollet farm, and in the vicinity of two other tracts of timber land purchased some years ago by Kalbach.

George Edwards is still sawing for Grant Baker on what is known as the Orth place. Grant employs from six to ten men, hauling timber, lumber and feed, and remodeling his house, which is now in the hands of the plasterers.

The local institute at Knobsville Friday night was a success. The order was very good, and the subjects were discussed in an able manner. There were present four teachers from Tod, and three of Dublin. The institute was presided over by Supt. Barton.

A surprise was given D. H. Myers and wife, when on Friday Mrs. Myers' eldest son, Riley P. Sipes, who had been in Franklin county husking corn, returned home that day accompanied by a young lady who had changed her name from Rockwill to Sipes on Thursday.

They left Mercersburg and drove over to McConnellsburg, and after the necessary preliminaries presented themselves before Rev. J. V. Adams, who is noted for his skill in tying knots. The bride was dressed in white silk. After the knot was tied sufficiently tight to please them, they drove to the home of the groom's sister where they remained until Friday morning, when they in company with Mrs. John Oakman, drove to the Myers home, where they spent the day, returning to the home of Mrs. Oakman in the evening.

Howard Mellott spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Geo. Mellott and wife, at this place.

Bennet Truax and Michael Mellott passed through this place Saturday, enroute to Everett.

Silas Mellott and wife spent Sunday in the home of Jos. Truax.

Nature needs only a Little Early Riser now and then to keep the bowels clean, the liver active, and the system free from bile, headaches, constipation, etc. The famous little pills "Early Risers" are pleasant in effect and perfect in action. They never gripe or sicken, but tone and strengthen the liver and kidneys. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Some Things a Man Should Do. Precede her in entering a hotel, theatre, lobby, restaurant, or any public place, except a church when a woman goes first unless there are no ushers, in which case he goes first to find seats.

Permit her to step into an elevator first always. In getting out, if it is into a public place, he leaves first.

Invariably proffer his seat to age, infirmity or helplessness, in whatever guise they appear. This is not more good manners than the kindly instincts of a gentleman toward whoever is weaker than himself.

Offer his seat to any woman who seems less able to stand than himself—not because she is pretty or smart, nor even because she is a woman, but for the reason set forth in the foregoing paragraph.

Remember that these observances are not foolish, meaningless subserviences to woman, but that they make for that gentleness and thoughtfulness which makes all human intercourse more pleasant.—Young People.

Do not be deceived by counterfeits when you buy Witch Hazel Salve. The name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. is on every box of the genuine. Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and grippe. At Trout's drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

SIPES MILL.

November 8.—Quite a number of our people attended the Dunkard Lovefeast Thursday evening.

Those present were Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, Nannie Mellott, Stillwell Truax and wife, M. L. Truax, Myrtle Strait, ex-Treasurer Geo. B. Mellott and daughter, of McConnellsburg; Judge-elect D. T. Humbert, Harry Peck, of Ambridge, Pa.; Harvey and Orpha Snyder, Philip Gordon and daughter Nellie; Elder C. L. Funk and daughter, Oliver Mellott and family, David Hill and family, Mrs. Harriet Evans, Irene and Willie Evans, Mrs. Aaron Morgret, Prof. Lee Funk and Prof. Schrieber.

Sam received a lot of useful presents; also a nice sum of money.

Thinking that the preacher deserved something, as he had gotten all so far, he took his hat and passed it around. A nice little sum was realized, which the brother highly appreciated.

Elder Funk said this was the first time he had been at a surprise supper, but he had attended lots of wedding suppers. He said a surprise was as good as a wedding.

The evening passed quickly and the clock pointed to 12 before the merry party broke up and returned to their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hess many happy returns of the day. It was a day long to be remembered as all felt it was one of those pleasant evenings that go to make a happy life.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

John Winegardner and daughter, Annie, visited Ran McDonald at Kearney, Saturday and Sunday.

Birthday Surprise.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 9th, as Samuel Hess was doing the evening chores, he noticed a buggy stop at the house. Looking closer, he saw it was his mother and niece. He quickly went to unhitch the horse. As they said nothing unusual beyond a hearty handshake and inquiring after his health, he went and put the horse in the stable, and they went into the house. In a short time he went in, and seeing supper was not waiting as usual, he thought the cook was slow, but it was only a few moments until his neighbors and relatives came pouring in until the number of 35 were there. It suddenly dawned on Sam that this was his 35th birthday, and that this was a surprise for him; and a surprise it was, indeed. They were all invited to the sitting room and parlor, and soon were engaged in social chat.

Of course, Georgia knew all about this and promptly at half past seven o'clock, the dining-room door was thrown open and displayed to view the table groaning beneath its load. It was a beautiful sight to see, it being brilliantly lighted, and beautifully decorated. After all were seated and thanks given by Elder Funk, all did ample justice to the good things prepared.

After all had been served they returned to the parlor where they were treated to some delightful music furnished by Prof. Scrieber and Funk.

Those present were Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, Nannie Mellott, Stillwell Truax and wife, M. L. Truax, Myrtle Strait, ex-Treasurer Geo. B. Mellott and daughter, of McConnellsburg; Judge-elect D. T. Humbert, Harry Peck, of Ambridge, Pa.; Harvey and Orpha Snyder, Philip Gordon and daughter Nellie; Elder C. L. Funk and daughter, Oliver Mellott and family, David Hill and family, Mrs. Harriet Evans, Irene and Willie Evans, Mrs. Aaron Morgret, Prof. Lee Funk and Prof. Schrieber.
