Married.

SIPES—BRANTNER.

On Wednesday evening a quiet wedding took place at the home of Rev. G. C. Probst, in East Providence township, when Mr. George Sipes, of East McKeesport, near Pittsburg, and Miss Bessie Brantner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brantner, of East Providence township, were pronounced husband and wife, by the venerable parson. Mr. and Mrs. Sipes will leave for East McKeesport next Monday, where they will begin housekeeping at once. Mr. Sipes is an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.—Everett Republican.

[The groom is a son of Mr. John Sipes, of Licking Creek, and formerly one of Fulton's successful teachers, and the bride is highly esteemed in the community in which she has lived. Ed.]

SIPES—ROCKWILL.

Mr. Riley P. Sipes and Miss Susan Rockwill, both of Mercersburg, Pa., were united in marriage, Thursday, November 9, 1905, at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, by Rev. J. Vernon Adams.

But few people are entirely free from indigestion at this season of the year. Kodol Dyspepsia cure is not only the best remedy to use because it digests what you eat but because it also enables the digestive apparatus to assimilate and transform all food into tissue-building blood. Kodol cures sour stomach, heart burn, belching, and all forms of indigestion. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

NATIVE OF FULTON COUNTY.

Born on Trout Farm, in Tod. His Father owned, also, the McGovern Farm.

Nicholas Puterbaugh was born 1 1/2 miles from McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania, November 19, 1823, and died at his home in Cherry Grove, Illinois, Monday October 30, 1905, at the age of 81 years, 11 months and 11 days.

Mr. Puterbaugh went to Carroll county, Illinois, with his parents in the year 1848, and they located on a farm in Cherry Grove township. He and his brother John Puterbaugh, run a general store in Mt. Carroll, Ill., for two years, after which Nicholas Puterbaugh became a partner of R. G. Tompkins in a general store at Mt. Carroll, by purchasing Van Myer's interest. He and Mr. Tompkins were thus engaged for eight years.

In 1860 Mr. Puterbaugh moved back to Cherry Grove, and in 1861 he moved on a farm where he remained forty-four years, up to the time of his death.

In 1850 he was married to Mary Louisa Gale, and to this union were born ten children, Margaret, Jeannette, William, Harry, Sady, Ella, Sylvia, May, Rosy, and Jessie, of whom only six are living, William, Harry, Ella, Sylvia, May and Jessie, all living in Carroll county, except Harry, who lives at Belvidere, Ill.

Mr. Puterbaugh's mother died when he was but a small boy, her maiden name was Sarah Martin, and his father's name was George.

Ten years ago last September he had his right arm amputated resulting from a slight puncture of a barb wire prong.

Last August he became ill with cancer of the stomach from which he has been a sufferer and which he bore very patiently up to the time of his death.

Ten years ago last September he joined the Dunkard church near his home, and he has tried to live a better life ever since putting his faith and trust in our dear Savior. Mr. Puterbaugh was a man of the strictest integrity. He was always guided by the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would have them do to you." He was so scrupulously conscientious, as to what was right and just, that he could under no circumstances be led to do otherwise, no matter what inducement was held up to him. He was a man of the strongest convictions and had the courage to act as his conscience dictated. One of his chief aims in life was to do right by everybody and to wrong nobody, a fact so well known by the entire neighborhood where he has lived for forty years.

He leaves to mourn the loss his aged wife and six children, a sister, Mrs. Mary Rowland, of California, and three half sisters, Mrs. Kate Miller, of Iowa, Mrs. Lydia Emmert, Mt. Morris, and Miss Sadie Puterbaugh, of Newark.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday at the Dunkard church at Georgetown, Ill., and were in charge of Elder I. R. Young of that place and the remains were laid to rest in the Georgetown cemetery.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves belching, heart burn, sour stomach, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, etc. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Notice in Trespass.

This is to give notice that a ewe and one lamb came upon the premises of the undersigned in Licking Creek township, and that unless the owner comes forward, pays charges, and takes them away, they will be disposed of according to law.

M. M. HOCKENSMITH, Oct. 31, 1905.

Notice.

Hattie Ethel Mellott, who has had her home with me, ran away from my premises on the first day of November 1905, without my consent, or without any just cause. This is to notify all persons that I will not be responsible for any bills for her maintenance, nor for any other bills she may contract. HARRIET EVANS, Needmore, Pa.

KNOWSVILLE.

Nov. 12.—Mrs. Amos Clouser and Mrs. Grant Baker and son Norman, were the guests of Jacob Grubbe and family at Burdell last Sunday.

John Brubaker is all smiles. It is a new dish washer.

Ad Spangler, who spent the past week with his brother, C. R. Spangler, returned to his home Friday.

A gentleman in our vicinity started to the election Tuesday. Fearing he might get hungry before returning home, he asked a good lady for some apples to eat. These she gave him and also brought him a pumpkin pie. While he was busily engaged with the pie, his horse started with him, and what might have proved a runaway, was fortunately nothing but a badly demoralized pumpkin pie and a brand new pair of gloves soiled.

Samuel Cromer and wife, Wm. Snyder and wife, Bruce Chene and wife, J. M. Sharp and wife, and Mrs. Elmer Glunt were among the pleasant callers in town Tuesday.

A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels—works all the cold out of the system—is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the head and throat and makes weak lungs strong. Best for croup, whooping cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

SALUVIA.

Nov. 7.—We had quite a snow storm last Friday. It found lots of corn not husked.

D. E. Mellott and son, Ed, have a large contract of sawing near this place.

Ida Jane Kline and brother Eddie, Mrs. John Moore, Howard Hann, and Louie Kegarie were guests of Mrs. John Hann last Sunday.

Benjamin Deshong, Jacob Haulman and William Moore have returned from Franklin county, where they were husking corn.

John Mellott succeeded in bagging a fine gobbler last Friday. Our hunters think it prudent to leave the wing bones at home when they go to the woods.

Frank Norris has moved into the John C. Dishong house.

Philip Strait has built a new end to his house, which adds much to the appearance of the house.

Buckwheat cakes and fresh sausage are ripe now. Ahem!

$25 Reward.

The undersigned will pay a reward of twenty-five dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person who shot a hog on their premises about 11 o'clock, a. m., November 7, 1905.

Advertisement for More Ladies' Coats. Includes text: 'More Ladies' Coats. Our fourth shipment of ladies' and misses coats is here. The heavy sales of ladies coats is due to our having just what the trade wants. The three-quarter length is very popular, and we have them made of pleasing materials, well tailored, and at prices to suit all kinds of pocket books. The short coats are meeting the popular demand, and are finding new owners among the smart dressers. It is impossible for us to describe the many Ladies', Misses', and Children's Coats we have. The assortment is large, and the prices—like my other prices—are as reasonable as quality will admit. Suits and Overcoats. In the face of advanced prices in cotton and woolen goods, we are in a position to show you a larger line of Men's and Boys' suits at much lower prices than last spring. You will make no mistake in taking a look at our suits and overcoats before buying your winter outfit. We have been told that there was never such a large stock in this store before. This means a wide range of bargains to select from. HARRY E. HUSTON, Saltillo Bargain Man. SALTILLO, PA.'
