JOHN AND GEORGE MAGSAM.

Not One Pupil Left.

In consequence of the order of Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, of the state board of health, Miss Maud Vaughan, a teacher of one of the public schools of Lincoln township, Huntingdon county, is having an easy, but monotonous time. One after another she has turned away her pupils until every one has been barred from attending school. Their parents refuse to have them vaccinated, and Miss Vaughan fears to admit them on account of the fine which she may incur. Day after day she appears at the school house and remains from 9 till 4 o'clock and declares she will collect her salary just the same.

TORTURED AMERICAN WOMEN.

Missionaries Subjected to Frightful Atrocities in China.

Hongkong, Nov. 9.—Horrifying details of the massacre of American missionaries at Lienchow are given by Dr. Machle, who escaped. The fanatics seized Miss Chestnut and Mrs. Machle and exposed them to public view in the Chinese temple. Amy Machle, the doctor's 10-year-old child, was carried off and flung alive into the river.

The rioters stripped Miss Chestnut naked and flung her into the river. While the two were struggling in the water, three Chinamen speared them with tridents. Miss Chestnut's body and Amy Machle's head were pierced. Mrs. Machle appealed to the rioters, but the mob stoned her brains out, stripped the body and flung it into the river. The mob then captured Mr. and Mrs. Peale, stripped them naked, exposed them for fifteen minutes, clubbed Mr. Peale to death in his wife's presence, and subsequently killed Mrs. Peale in the same brutal fashion.

THE COUNTY INSTITUTE.

Outline of Work to Be Followed by the Teachers During the Morning Sessions.

The programs for the County Teachers' Institute are being sent out this week, and we desire to extend an invitation to all friends of education to attend, both day and evening sessions. We have secured the best available talent for the week, and we feel assured that the institute will be a success.

For the convenience of teachers we publish an outline of the topics for teachers' periods during the week.

ORDER OF WORK.

Day sessions from 9 to 12, and from 1:30 to 4. Teachers' period every morning from 9 to 10. Evening entertainments begin at 7:30. Doors open at 7 o'clock.

TEACHERS' TOPICS.

Tuesday morning—9 o'clock. "Common Sense in Disciplining and Teaching"—Emery Thomas, Myrtle Stevens, Orpha Snyder, S. L. Wink, C. C. Rotz.

Wednesday morning.—"The Spirit of the Recitation."—V. Don Morton, Hattie S. Kendall, Olive Zimmerman, E. B. Cline, S. E. Walters.

Thursday morning.—"Co-operation; How Secured and Held?"—B. C. Lamberson, Zoe Mason, Lillian Hill, Harry Bergstresser, Lewis Harris.

Friday morning.—"The Real Purpose of the School."—L. P. Morton, Olive Grissinger, S. L. Simpson, E. C. Hendershot, Blanche O. Peck, Gilbert B. Mellott.

All teachers should be in their places at nine o'clock, and each prepared to take his part in the discussion of the topic. Lack of interest in the work of the week, and more especially in the teachers' periods, shows a woeful lack of professional zeal.

ROUSS RACKET STORE.

Gentlemen, if you haven't bought an overcoat this fall, and you are going to need one, we have a word to say to you. We bought more overcoats this year than we have in any two years since we are in business, and have sold more. We think we are in position to save you money on them the same as other goods. All we ask of you is, that you come in and see our line, and if we can't save you 25 per cent. on your purchase, then don't buy. And, in suits, the same is true. We have overcoats from $2.48 to $7.00; and if the $7.00 coat is not as good as any $10.00 coat you look at, we give up. In men's suits, we have them from $2.35 to $7.75, or to $12.00 if made to order.

Don't let the Jew tell you that he has the Shippensburg 27c. linen chain corduroy, unless you see for yourself. The price of this cord is $2.48. We have cheaper ones too, $1.25, $1.75 and $1.88. The $1.88 cord is a fine corduroy and lined with drilling.

Just got our lard cans in for this fall. They are 50 lb. cans, japanned and a fastener on the top to hold lid on, 33c. each. Wash boiler, metallic bot made.

By chance we got 3 rolls of Porter's first quality (the heaviest made) floor oil cloth in 4x, 6x and 8x, at 24c. yd. We will agree that there are cheaper ones, but any fair person will tell you that this is the cheapest they ever heard of, this grade selling, think of it, only 24c. yd.

Save catch mouse traps, 2c. each, 20c. doz.
