Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Gynae-troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacement of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Leucorrhoea than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development.

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Menstruation, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Womb troubles, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system, and is as harmless as water.

It quickly removes that bearing-down feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, Dizziness, Faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the Uterus, which this medicine always cures. Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound always cures.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Beware of all substitutes.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Charles Dana Gibson goes abroad to live, but the girl he leaves behind him.

The boy who kills himself smoking cigarettes is likely to keep on smoking, reflects the Baltimore Sun.

When we speak of the "people" we too often and too exclusively have in mind the male portion of our citizenship, avers the Boston Transcript, because to them—in this portion of the country, at least—is entrusted all direct dealing with great public issues. But a great mistake is made when the women are left out of the reckoning. No great social or political reform has ever been achieved in which their influence could not be traced and when large ethical questions are involved they are usually the first to feel and respond to the appeal that is made.

The real friends of football are all united in deploring the brutality and roughing tactics, ill-feeling and fast-cutts which will unfailingly sound the knell of what is, in its proper estate, a splendid American game. Football is fast coming to the point where it must be either totally reformed or abolished, declares the Richmond Times Dispatch. Football is too good a game to lose, but we had far better lose it than keep it in its latter-day developments. Far better would be the doing away with the men who are wholly ruining it for decent sportsmen. An intercollegiate board should run down every man guilty of dirty play and rule him permanently off the field.

He rescued more than 500,000 children from vice and degradation, and he leaves more than 7,000 in his various homes. In those few words is told, in brief, the story of the life-work of Dr. Thomas John Barnardo, one of the greatest and truest philanthropists, not only of these times, but of all times, and whose death last week in London, Eng., has caused deep sorrow wherever his name is known. Under the charge of this one man was the largest family in the world, every member of which looked up to him as father, guide and friend. He needs no monument to do him honor, avoices the Baltimore American, for he left behind him to bear his name and to tell of his good deeds nearly a hundred homes and hospitals, nurseries and orphanages, dormitories and lodging houses, emigration depots and rescue branches, all of which testify not only to his success, but to the widespread influence for betterment he exerted on hundreds and thousands of children and youth, who, but for him would be added to the criminal classes in the slums of a great city.
